About the Bulletin

The 2014-2015 Hamline University Graduate Bulletin is the primary resource for academic information, including official curricular requirements, for Hamline University graduate students. The Hamline University Graduate Bulletin is available electronically at <http://bulletin.hamline.edu>.

Students who are admitted for, and enrolled during, the 2014-2015 academic year are subject to the degree requirements described in this Bulletin. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the policies and procedures of Hamline University early in their academic career. Failure to read this Bulletin does not excuse students from the requirements and provisions described herein. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information in the Bulletin.

About Hamline

Rigorous academics and innovative programs attract and challenge a diverse and talented student body in Hamline University's undergraduate college, graduate schools, and law school. Guided by faculty who are leaders in their fields, Hamline's more than 4,400 students experience an intimate environment of small classes and personal attention along with the opportunities of a comprehensive university.

Ranked first in Minnesota among comprehensive universities by U.S. News and World Report, Hamline is also Minnesota's first university, founded in 1854.

Accreditation

Hamline University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Associations of Colleges and Schools. The Commission is located at 30 North LaSalle Street, Suite 2400, Chicago, Illinois 60602-2504, and can be reached at 312-263-0456 or 800-621-7440.

Hamline University is also accredited by the:

- American Bar Association;
- Association of American Law Schools;
- American Chemical Society;
- University Senate of the United Methodist Church;
- Minnesota Department of Education/Board of Teaching; and
- National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education

Hamline University is registered as a private institution with the Minnesota Office of Higher Education pursuant to sections 136A.61 to 136A.71. Registration is not an endorsement of the institution. Credits earned at the institution may not transfer to all other institutions.

Hamline's four schools may have additional accreditation in specialized areas. Please contact the dean's office of each respective school for a complete listing.

Graduate Programs at a Glance

College of Liberal Arts

Celebrating more than 25 years of rigorous, interdisciplinary study, the College of Liberal Arts' graduate programs (formerly the Graduate School of Liberal Studies) have developed a national reputation in creative writing and liberal studies.

- The Creative Writing Programs offer two MFA programs to choose from.
- Graduate degrees offered include the master of fine arts in writing (MFA) and the master of fine arts in writing for children and young adults (MFAC).
- The MFA program is Minnesota's first graduate degree program in creative writing. It is distinguished by its interdisciplinary emphasis and its support of work in more than one genre.

- The low-residency MFA in writing for children and young adults is a full-immersion program boasting a five-to-one student to faculty ratio. The program brings students and distinguished faculty from across the country to campus twice a year for eleven days. Afterward, students work independently from home with a faculty advisor throughout the semester.

School of Business

Hamline's School of Business offers master's degrees in all three economic sectors of government, business, and nonprofit. In addition, students can earn a doctorate in public administration, dual degrees, and professional development certificates.

- Degrees offered: master of arts (MA) in public administration or nonprofit management; master of business administration (MBA); doctorate in public administration. Joint master's and juris doctor degrees, sequential degrees, as well as dual master's degrees.
- The doctorate in public administration was the upper Midwest's first such program.
- International student body provides a distinctive learning atmosphere in which cross-cultural, as well as cross-sector, exchanges occur.
- Concentrations in business include international management, conflict management, marketing, and finance.
- Continuing studies seminars and certificate programs focus on current and relevant subjects to professionals in businesses, government, and nonprofit organizations.

School of Education

For more than thirty years, Hamline's School of Education has inspired, challenged and transformed educators to improve learning for all children. More than 10,000 students have grown professionally through Hamline's quality educational coursework taught in a community of adult learners who value intellectual challenge and scholarship in an environment of mutual respect.

- Degrees offered: doctorate in education (EdD); master of arts (MA) in education; MA in education with an emphasis in natural science and environmental education; MA in English as a second language (ESL); MA in Literacy Education; and MA in teaching, which provides initial licensure for new teachers.
- Home to nationally recognized programs and centers, including second language teaching and learning, literacy, the Center for Global Environment Education, and the Center for Excellence in Urban Teaching.
- The school's ESL program, the largest in Minnesota, is internationally recognized.

- Licensure (including principal, superintendent, and special education director), certificate, and continuing education programs serve more than 8,000 educators annually.

Admission Information

Office of Graduate Admission
1536 Hewitt Ave., MS-A1710
Saint Paul, MN 55104-1284
651-523-2900 or 800-753-9753
gradprog@hamline.edu

Admission information and applications can be found at www.hamline.edu/graduate.

Students wishing to enroll in degree program coursework must be either fully admitted to the degree program or admitted with conditional or special status. Students wishing to pursue an additional teaching license or an administrative license must apply for admission to the appropriate licensure program. Exceptions may be made at the discretion of individual programs. Admission requirements, application instructions, and deadlines are published in each program's materials.

Admission decisions are made by each program's admission committee. The admission committee will not review an application file until all required documents have been received. When a decision is made, the applicant will be notified by mail.

Upon admission, degree-seeking students will be asked to accept their admission and they will receive registration materials, financial policies and procedures, and instructions for accessing student information through Hamline University's secure website, Piperline.

Conditional Status: Conditional admission may be granted, upon the approval of the program director or the admission committee, in those instances where the applicant has not submitted all the required materials to complete the application process. Students must submit all admission requirements prior to the completion of their first semester.

Provisional Status: Provisional admission is granted in situations where a student does not meet all academic standards but through the review of application materials demonstrates the ability to be successful in graduate studies. After completion of the first semester, program personnel will review to determine if the student has satisfied the requirements for full admission.

Special Status: Students who wish to take graduate courses for credit but do not wish to be degree candidates may be allowed to register on a space-available basis. To do so, students must apply for Special status. Application forms for Special status are available from the Office of Graduate Admission or on the program's Website.

A Special student must hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution. Special students are expected to participate fully in all classes. Courses taken under Special status may later be applied toward degree requirements, provided that satisfactory grades are achieved. A student may take up to three courses under Special status. Special students are not considered degree seeking and are not eligible for financial aid.

Inactive Status: Students who have not enrolled in Hamline course work for one year from the term of their last registration will be placed on inactive status. Students who wish to have their record reactivated may do so by contacting the program in writing and requesting to be placed on active status. The period of inactivity will be counted as a part of the time frame to complete the program.

Reactivation, Readmission, Deferral: Students who have been admitted for a specific term may defer their admission to a following term by contacting their program office. Students who have been made inactive or who have withdrawn and wish to resume their graduate program must go through a review by program staff. Additional documentation for readmission may be requested by the program.

International Students Additional Requirements: Applicants with a degree from a non-U.S. institution must submit official or certified-true academic records along with a course by course credential evaluation from a NACES approved evaluator (www.naces.org). An explanation of the grading system should be submitted if it differs from the U.S. 4.0 system. Students are responsible to cover all fees of such evaluation as well as to make their own arrangements with the Credential Evaluation Company to send their documents to Hamline University directly.

A minimum TOEFL score of 550 (written exam) or 213 or above (computer-based exam) must be achieved and submitted to Hamline University directly from the Educational Testing Service. The exception to this is the Master of Arts in ESL which requires a minimum TOEFL score of 600 (written). Visit www.ets.org/toefl for more information about the TOEFL exam.

An Affidavit of Support needs to be completed and signed by the person who will be paying for your expenses during your studies here at Hamline and in the United States. The person that signs the Affidavit of Support must also include his/her bank statements as a proof of the said funding.

Financial Aid and Scholarships

Hamline University graduate students are generally not eligible for need based or institutional grants. However, graduate students may choose to apply for Federal Direct Loans to help defray their education costs. To be eligible for Federal Direct Loans, graduate students must maintain at least half-time status (four credits per semester). In addition to Federal Direct Loans, some graduate students are eligible to borrow Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Graduate PLUS Loans and/or private alternative educational loans up to the cost of their education.

Hamline University's graduate programs offer the following annual scholarships:

College of Liberal Arts' MFA in Writing

Merit Scholarships: Hamline offers annual merit scholarships (which covers 25% of overall tuition in the program) to those incoming students whose application materials demonstrate the most promise. The scholarship is awarded to 10% of incoming students.

Shirley White Pearl Annual Scholarship: Annual award is available to MFA students who are pursuing their degree full time and who demonstrate the highest potential for artistic excellence.

Richard P. Bailey Endowed Scholarship: Annual award given to an MFA student who has demonstrated financial need and excellent writing ability.

Assistantships: In addition to the scholarships in the MFA program, there are a number of Graduate Teaching Assistantships and Graduate Assistantships available for students enrolled in the program.

College of Liberal Arts' MFA in Writing for Children and Young Adults (MFAC)

Frances and Kermit Rudolf Nonfiction Scholarship: Annual award given for the most promising manuscript in the field of nonfiction picture book, easy reader, or a longer nonfiction book.

TA Barron Scholarship: Annual award given for an outstanding work of fantasy that explores moral questions and/or deeper ideas about the human condition.

Walden Pond Press Scholarship in Middle-Grade Fiction and Nonfiction: Annual award given for the most promising manuscript in middle-grade fiction or nonfiction.

Herman W. Block Memorial Scholarship: Annual award for new students who exhibit significant promise in writing for children and young adults.

Anne Stickney Schmidt Scholarship in Young People's Literature presented by Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Publishing Company: Annual award given to a new or current student in the program who shows exceptional promise in the writing of children's or young adult literature.

Vaunda Micheaux Nelson Scholarship presented by Lerner

Publishing Group: Annual award given to a new or current student in the program who shows exceptional promise as a writer of color.

School of Business

Brooks Scholarship: Awarded yearly to a female student in either the master's or doctorate program in public administration. Recipients must be committed to the advancement of women, plan a career in public administration, and show academic achievement.

Novak Scholarship: Awarded annually to a student in either the master's or doctorate program in public administration. Recipients must show commitment to public service and the community and academic achievement.

Another important source of financial aid for Hamline University graduate students comes from outside scholarships. These are scholarships that students procure on their own from resources outside of Hamline. Graduate students are encouraged to register at www.fastweb.com, a major national scholarship database/resource. In addition, graduate students should also regularly check the Hamline University scholarship list that is maintained by the Financial Aid Office. This list is available in electronic format on Hamline's Financial Aid website at www.hamline.edu/outsidescholarships.

Academic Standards and Policies

(Note: Changes in the following standards and policies may go into effect periodically.)

The following are policies that apply specifically to graduate students; however, additional Hamline University policies apply as well. Visit www.hamline.edu/policies for more information.

Academic Integrity-Graduate School Statement

Dishonesty of any kind in relation to academic work threatens the integrity of the academic enterprise and is prohibited at Hamline University. Such dishonesty includes plagiarism, ghost writing, and falsifying official information concerning one's academic background or status.

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person's work or ideas. Any passage copied verbatim, with small changes, or in paraphrase must be acknowledged with a citation. Ghost writing is preparing work for another or having another prepare one's own work.

When a student is found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy, academic penalties may be prescribed by the instructor of the course in question including, but not restricted to, the requirement of additional work, an assignment of a failing grade on the work in question, or a failing grade for the entire course. When a student is found to have falsified official information, the administrative official responsible will determine whether the violation merits suspension from the university.

The student has the right to appeal the instructor's or administrator's decision to the appropriate graduate school dean, and if still dissatisfied, to the Provost's Office. In the case where the dean is the instructor or administrator, a second member of the school/program faculty will be asked to perform an independent investigation and make a recommendation. The decision of the Provost is final.

Academic Progress for Graduate Students

Students must make satisfactory progress toward their degree or license. Students who, for example, have poor class attendance records, fail to complete several courses, or have a consistently low GPA may be suspended at the discretion of the program dean/director and the faculty advisory committee.

Accommodations for Disabilities

Hamline University and the Disability Resources office are committed to ensuring equal access to the university and its programs for students with disabilities. Disability Resources coordinates and provides reasonable accommodations, collaborates to create an accessible and hospitable learning environment, and promotes self-determination on the part of the individuals they serve. The office supports and accommodates students with physical, sensory, attentional, psychiatric, and learning disabilities.

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended 2008, Hamline University shall make reasonable accommodations to any qualified individual with a disability. To be eligible for accommodations, a student must have a documented disability as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended 2008, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. According to these laws, a person has a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Major life activities include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, and working. A qualified student with a disability is defined by Section 504 as anyone who meets the academic and technical standards required for admission or participation in a post-secondary institution's programs and activities.

In order to receive reasonable accommodations, students are responsible for:

- Contacting Disability Resources to discuss their needs and/or request accommodations.
- Providing Disability Resources with appropriate information to establish the presence of a disability and/or support the need for reasonable accommodations. (For detailed information about documenting disabilities, visit www.hamline.edu/disabilityresources or contact the Disability Resources director.)
- Keeping the Disability Resources director informed and providing updated documentation if their disability or its symptoms change.
- Requesting accommodations as far ahead of time as possible. Some accommodations cannot be effectively arranged if they are requested on short notice. For example, it can take up to 4 weeks to prepare audio books.
- Discussing accommodations with faculty and staff members as needed and notifying Disability Resources right away if there are any concerns or difficulties with receiving accommodations.

Hamline University has the right to:

- Identify and establish essential elements and technical standards, abilities, skills, knowledge, and standards for courses, programs, and services.
- Request and receive recent and appropriate documentation from a qualified professional that verifies and supports the request for accommodations.

- Consult with the student in making the final determination regarding the selection of effective and reasonable accommodations.
- Make the final decision regarding which accommodations will be provided.
- Deny a request for accommodations if the documentation does not demonstrate they are warranted, or is not provided in a timely manner.
- Refuse to provide any accommodation that is unreasonable, including any that:
  - Poses a direct threat to the health and safety of the individual requesting the accommodation or of others.
  - Consists of a fundamental change or alteration of an essential element of a course or program.
  - Results in an undue financial or administrative burden on the institution.

Students seeking accommodations should contact the Director of Disability Resources at 651-523-2521.

Attendance/Assignments

Students are not permitted to attend classes for which they are not registered.

Students are expected to attend all course meetings and to turn in all course work as assigned. Students who are unable to attend a class or submit an assignment in a timely manner should inform their instructor in advance. Academic penalties, including failure of a course, may be imposed for missing class meetings or late assignments. Expectations for online courses are handled on a course-by-course basis.

Students who miss class to observe religious holidays or to attend political caucuses will not be penalized if arrangements are made with the instructor in advance.

If class assignments include group work, each student in the group must contribute his or her fair and proportionate share to the project.

Students may not submit substantially similar work or material for more than one course unless they obtain permission from the instructors of all applicable courses. This applies to courses taken simultaneously or in different terms.

Class Cancellation

In the unlikely event that course enrollment does not reach the minimum, the course will be canceled. Students are notified via email as soon as the course has been officially canceled by the University.

Commencement

Graduates are honored at the annual commencement ceremony held at the end of each spring term. Clearance of all financial obligations is essential in order to receive a diploma.

Diplomas are distributed within six to eight weeks following commencement. The transcript degree conferral date is the date when final requirements are met or the end of term.

Course Drop and Withdrawal

Students who no longer wish to attend a course for which they are registered have the option to drop or withdraw from the class. The determination of whether a student is eligible to drop or withdraw is based on how much of the course has already taken place. Graduate students must request to be dropped or withdrawn from their courses via email to registrar@hamline.edu or in person at Student Administrative Services, located in East Hall.

It is the student's responsibility to request enrollment changes of any kind. Instructors are not permitted to drop or withdraw students from classes under any circumstances. Non-attendance does not result in an automatic drop or withdrawal.

Dropping a course: Students may drop a course if they are within the drop period. Dropping a course means:

- No notation of the course recorded on transcript;
- No tuition owed;
- Return of all financial aid, if applicable.

Deadlines for dropping a course are based on how many credits a course is worth and are as follows:

Fall and Spring terms:

- 4 credits: 14 calendar days from the start date of the course
- 3 credits: 10 calendar days from the start date of the course
- 2 credits: 7 calendar days from the start date of the course
- 1 credit: 2 calendar days from the start date of the course

Winter term:

All courses: 2 calendar days from the start date of the course

Summer term:

- 4 credits: 7 calendar days from the start date of the course
- 3 credits: 7 calendar days from the start date of the course
- 2 credits: 2 calendar days from the start date of the course
- 1 credit: 2 calendar days from the start date of the course

In all cases: If a course's duration is less than the number of calendar days in the drop schedule, the course must be dropped the day after it begins. If the course meets 2 days or less, the course must be dropped prior to the start of the course. If a course's drop date falls on a non-business day, drop requests will be honored if received by the next business day.

Exception: MFA in Writing for Children & Young Adults students follow the above for non-residency terms. During residency terms, students may drop up to 10 days prior to the start of the residency and owe no tuition. If dropping fewer than 10 days before the start of the residency, 100% of the tuition will be owed.

Withdrawing from a course: Students who wish to stop attending a course after the drop deadline must request a withdrawal. Withdrawing from a course means:

- A grade of "W" recorded on transcript;
- Tuition owed based on effective date of withdrawal;
- Recalculation of all financial aid, if applicable.

In all cases, a request to withdraw from a course must be received prior to the last day of the class.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to evaluate their current courses and quality of instruction at the conclusion of every course. If a student has a concern outside the evaluation process, it is recommended that the student first address the instructor. If unable to resolve the concern, the student should consult with the program dean to discuss both informal and formal processes for dealing with the concern. In a case where the instructor is the dean, the student should consult with the Provost's Office.

Access to view grades may be delayed if a student fails to complete the course evaluation during the open period.

Credit Hour Policy

Hamline University uses the definition of a credit hour as recommended by the US Department of Education:

Federal Credit Hour Definition: A credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally-established equivalency that reasonably approximates not less than: (1) one academic hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time; or (2) at least an equivalent amount of work as required in paragraph (1) of this definition for other activities as established by an institution, including laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work, and other academic work leading toward to the award of credit hours.

This definition of a credit hour applies to courses at all levels. However, any college within the University may choose to set a policy requiring learning outcomes equivalent to more work than is defined in the federal credit hour definition.

Financial Hold: Restrictions on Registration and Release of Academic Records

Students who have a past due balance on their Hamline University student account will be placed on financial hold. This financial hold prevents registration for courses or changes to a student's registration schedule. In addition, no official transcript or diploma will be released until all financial obligations are paid in full.

Grade Definitions and Grading Information

Students may occasionally have the option of choosing a grading system (letter grade, pass/no pass, audit, etc.) and must identify this preference at the time of registration. This decision is irreversible. To protect student identity and confidentiality, grades are not given out over the telephone or faxed, and transcripts are not released if a student's account balance is not current. For official transcript information, call 651-523-2345 or check www.hamline.edu/transcript.

Grades: The following grades may be assigned:

Grade	Value/Definition
A	4.00
A-	3.70
B+	3.30
B	3.00
B-	2.70
C+	2.30
C	2.00
C-	1.70
D+	1.30
D-	.70
F	0.00
AU	Audit-no credit given-attended class
EX	Registration extended to following term
I	Incomplete
N	No credit
P	Pass-credit awarded
W	Withdrawn

Audit Grades

Generally, students may audit master's level courses on a space-available basis and with the permission of the program office. Students who audit a course will not receive academic credit for the course. The decision to audit is irreversible. A final grade of AU is assigned to the student's permanent record. Auditors participate in all classroom activities, projects, and assignments but do not receive evaluation for their work. College of Liberal Arts graduate writing courses, School of Business MBA modules, and EdD courses may not be audited. Contact the program office for audit registration and fee information. Students intending to audit a course must submit an audit registration form with the required approvals to Registration and Records (East Hall 113) no later than the add/drop deadline.

Incomplete Grades

With an instructor's approval, a student may take an incomplete ("I") in a course. An "I" will be given only in unusual circumstances that are beyond the control of the student. An "I" cannot be granted for failing or uncompleted work (a substantial portion of the work must have already been completed). All instructors enter "I" grades via Piperline before a term's grading deadline.

An instructor must update an "I" to a final grade within four months after the end of the registration term (or by August 31 if the student intends to graduate in the summer). Otherwise, the "I" will convert to an "F" grade. If an "I" has been converted to an "F," the student may complete the necessary course work, at the instructor's discretion, within one year in accordance with the grade change policy. The student may not complete course work after that time.

Repeat Grades/GPA

See program specific requirements for grades. Only those courses in which grades below the minimum requirement were received may be repeated for credit/GPA purposes. All grades earned remain permanently on the transcript record; however, only the grade and credit recorded for the last time the course is taken are used in the calculation of the cumulative GPA and credits earned. Students incur normal tuition charges for repeated courses. When a repeated course is a transfer course, the repeated grade is not counted in the Hamline GPA.

Specific Grades for Degree Program and Licensure Students

For masters and doctoral students, only grades of "B" or better, or Pass, are acceptable toward graduation. Exceptions are described below. All grades appear on students' official transcripts, but only letter grades are calculated into the GPA. Grades for courses transferred into a graduate degree program at Hamline are not calculated into students' GPAs. Students may view final grades on Piperline at www.hamline.edu/piperline.

- Grades for College of Liberal Arts Graduate Students: Residencies, internships, and capstone projects are graded on a Pass/No Credit basis, while all other classes are assigned a letter grade. Sampler courses may be taken by degree-seeking students for a letter grade or for Pass/No Credit. Sampler classes taken for Pass/No Credit may not be used for degree credit.
- Grades for School of Business Graduate Students: For MBA students, grades of C or better are acceptable for graduation. All graduate students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in order to graduate. Letter grades are assigned for all courses, including capstones. GPA 8992: Dissertation II; GPA 8993: Dissertation III; GPA 8994: Dissertation IV; and GPA 8995: Dissertation V are graded on a Pass/No Credit basis.

- Grades for School of Education Students: Students in the Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) and Master of Arts in ESL programs receive a Pass/No Credit upon completion of the capstone. All education licensure advanced practica are taken Pass/No Credit (except for the Advanced Reading Practicum and Keyboarding Practicum, which are taken for a letter grade). All other education licensure course work that is to be used toward licensure must be taken for a letter grade. Education licensure students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in order to be recommended for any licensure. The practicum seminar and exit interview in Administrative Licensure are taken for no credit, but a "P" is issued upon completion of the processes.

Grade Change and Appeal

Grade Changes

Students may request of their instructors course grade changes based on a claim of clerical mistake, oversight, omission, or arbitrary and capricious grade assignment and must do so within 30 calendar days of the date the grade was issued. The grade change procedure is not to be used to challenge grades on individual assignments. It is the responsibility of the student to determine whether the grade change request must be made sooner than this deadline in situations where prerequisite course requirements are involved in the student's course sequence.

Students must meet with their instructor to request a grade change. To start the grade change request process, the student must contact the instructor to request a face-to-face meeting, and the instructor must respond in a timely manner to schedule the meeting. If the instructor or the student is no longer on campus, or if the student has a compelling reason why a face-to-face meeting would not be feasible, the instructor will engage in timely written communications with the student about the grade change request.

A decision regarding a requested grade change will be made by the faculty member within three weeks, or, if the request was submitted on a date outside the dates of a full semester (as defined by the program offering the course), within three weeks after the start of the academic semester following the receipt of the grade change request. By the applicable deadline, the faculty member will notify the student of the decision regarding the grade change, and, if the faculty member decides to change the course grade, the faculty member will also notify the Registrar. The Registrar will send confirmation of the grade change to the faculty member and student.

Grade Appeals

No grade appeal may be filed unless a grade change has first been sought and a decision reached. The grade appeal procedure shall be utilized if a student has been unsuccessful in achieving a grade change and wishes to pursue the matter further. As with grade change requests, the appeal procedure is only for course grades and is not to be used to challenge grades on individual assignments. In addition, the appeal procedure may be used only when the student contends that the course grade was assigned on an arbitrary or capricious basis. "Arbitrary or capricious" implies that:

- The student has been assigned a course grade on the basis of something other than his or her performance in the course; or
- The course grade is based upon standards that are significant, unannounced and unreasonable departures from those standards articulated in the course description, the syllabus, or standards otherwise clearly conveyed to the students in the course.

Grade appeal process

- The student must first communicate with the instructor and request a grade change under the grade change process identified above.
- If the student is unsuccessful in achieving a grade change and wishes to further pursue the matter, he or she must submit a completed Grade Appeal Request Form, with all materials supporting the grade appeal, to the department chairperson or designated academic administrator (or Dean, if the department chairperson or designated academic administrator was the instructor). Students can download the Grade Appeal Request Form at hamline.edu/registrar/forms. The student is to complete Part 1. Department chair or dean will complete Part 2. Both forms, completed and signed, are required.
- The student must request the grade appeal no later than six months following the end of the academic term in which the course was taken, or within 30 calendar days of notification from the instructor as to the decision on the grade change request, whichever is later. Any application for a grade appeal after this deadline will not be accepted.
- The department chairperson or designated academic administrator (or Dean, if the department chairperson or designated academic administrator was the instructor) will consider the appeal and may request additional information if needed for consideration of the grade appeal.
- The department chairperson or designated academic administrator (or Dean where applicable) will make his or her best effort to communicate with the instructor regarding any grade appeal and allow for input from the instructor.
- A decision will be made by the department chairperson or designated academic administrator (or Dean where applicable) within three weeks of receiving the Grade Appeal Request Form, or, if the request was submitted on a date outside the dates of a full semester (as defined by the program offering the course), within three weeks after the start of the academic semester following the receipt of the grade appeal submission. This time line and the proceedings under this policy may be adjusted at the discretion of the department chairperson or designated academic administrator (or Dean where applicable) in the circumstances where the student has alleged a violation covered by the Discrimination and Harassment Policy in the award of a final grade.

- The department chairperson or designated academic administrator (or Dean where applicable) will provide notification of the decision to the student, the instructor, the Dean, and the Registrar, and will provide the student a copy of the Grade Appeal Request Form with the department chairperson's or designated academic administrator's section completed.
- If the student wishes to appeal the initial grade appeal decision, he or she may request, in writing, a review by the Dean of the department in which the course was taught. If the department chairperson or designated academic administrator was the instructor of the course and the Dean decided the initial grade appeal, the student may appeal by requesting, in writing, a review by the Provost. The written request in either event must include a copy of the Grade Appeal Request Form, as completed by the person who decided the initial appeal, and all documents submitted with the form. The request must be received within 30 calendar days of the date that the student was notified of the initial grade appeal decision. The Dean or Provost shall make a decision within 30 calendar days of receipt of the appeal materials. This decision is final.
- The Dean or Provost will notify the student and the instructor of the final decision and provide the student a copy of the Grade Appeal Request Form with the Dean's section completed. The Dean, or the Provost, will notify the Registrar of any course grade change.

Military Leave

An enrolled student who is an active reservist called to active duty in one of the armed military services may receive a future credit in the amount of tuition paid during the term the student withdraws. Tuition paid includes cash payments, student loans, Pell Grants, Minnesota State Grants, SEOG grants and outside scholarships paid on the student's behalf. Hamline scholarships and grants are not included in determining the future credit.

The Financial Aid office will apply the credit to the student's account during the term the student re-enrolls. The amount of the future credit will be determined by student accounts and Financial Aid in consultation with the Registrar's office. A student receiving the credit will be provided with a letter at the time of withdrawal stating the terms of the credit. A copy of the letter will be filed with Financial Aid, Student Accounts, and Registrar's office for the student's file. The credit will be valid for no more than three years from the date the student commences the non-voluntary military leave. Students should contact the Registrar's office with copies of all military orders.

Name and Gender Changes

All name or gender change requests for current and former students must be made to Registration and Records (East Hall 113).

Name Changes

All current and former students have the opportunity to change their names on institutional records upon the production of evidence showing the student name has been officially changed, accompanied by a written request from the student. Copies of a court order, a marriage certificate, or a dissolution degree, reflecting the new name in full, are examples of the evidence required to support an official name change.

Minor changes in names can be made without a court order at the discretion of the Registrar (for example, spelling corrections or revisions). In these instances the student must provide documentation such as a current driver's license with photo, Social Security card, or resident alien card.

Note: Diplomas are issued with the student's legal name on file at the time of degree completion.

Gender Changes

A copy of a court order is required, along with a written request from the student in order to change gender and name on institutional records.

Registration

The Hamline registration website at www.hamline.edu/registration lists registration instructions, course information, an academic calendar for the term, and registration forms for degree and licensure students. Registration closes the day before the beginning of the course. Courses involving travel or other events may have earlier deadlines.

All Hamline course offerings are available at www.hamline.edu/classsschedules.

Contact Student Administrative Services at 651-523-3000 if you have questions related to registration.

Degree Program and Licensure Students register for master's and doctoral level classes on Piperline at www.hamline.edu/piperline.

Professional Development for Educators Students register for classes online through Piperline at www.hamline.edu/piperline.

Non-Degree/Non-License Students (such as Sampler and Adult Special students) register by mail, fax, or in person in the Student Administrative Services office. Publications are available listing courses; however, the most current are always listed on Piperline. Early registration is recommended as classes may fill. However, students may register for classes up until the first day of class as long as the class is still open.

Special Registrations such as independent studies, internships, field experiences, capstone, advanced practicum, personal assessment, and other individual projects require specific registration forms and approvals. The appropriate forms are available online or in the program offices. Prior to submitting a special registration, students should consult their advisor or a faculty member regarding the format of the project. Students approaching their capstone projects should meet with a faculty advisor for guidance well before the registration term begins. Most special registrations require the permission of the project advisor, and sometimes that of the program dean or director. The student is responsible for obtaining all necessary permissions before submitting the registration to Student Administrative Services.

Registration Processing: Registrations for all students are processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Registrations received from students with registration holds will not be processed until the hold (financial or administrative) is released. For degree- and license-seeking students, a $50 late fee is charged for registrations received after the last day to add/drop a course. This fee will also be charged if a registration cannot be processed by that deadline because of a registration hold (administrative or financial).

Enrolling after the Class Start: Instructor permission is required to add a course after the class has started. Appropriate forms to add/drop are available in Student Administrative Services (East Hall 113).

Confirmation of Registration: Students can check their Piperline schedules to confirm registration at www.hamline.edu/piperline. Students may request their Piperline pin by calling the ITS Helpdesk at 651-523-2220.

Release of Student Information (FERPA)

Access to student records, which complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), is described below:

Definitions

- Record: A record includes any data or information about you and related individuals, regardless of the media used to create or maintain the record.
- Education Records: Educational records include records maintained by the institution but exclude records maintained by individuals and available only to those individuals or designated substitutes (that is, "personal files"). Your educational records are located and maintained by administrators in one or more of the following offices: Admissions; Alumni Relations; Financial Aid; Registration & Records; Student Accounts; and your academic program office. Note: The Registration and Records office is the only university office authorized to issue official transcripts and certify students' enrollment status. All requests for such documentation must be directed to that office.

- Public Information: Public information (also called "directory" information) consists of your name, student ID number, address, e-mail address, telephone number, dates of attendance, full-time or part-time enrollment status, photographs taken and maintained by the university for various purposes, previous institutions attended, major and minor fields of study, awards, honors, degrees and dates conferred, past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, physical factors (height, weight) of athletes, and date and place of birth. Records of arrests and/or convictions are public records and thus not subject to university policy. Note: If you wish to restrict the release of your directory information, you must do so by notifying Registration and Records (East Hall, 113).

Release in Emergencies: The confidentiality of all records may be broken in an emergency if deemed necessary by the severity of the emergency, the usefulness of the records, and the extent to which time is critical.

Release to You: Your records are available to you with the following exceptions: confidential letters of recommendation submitted prior to 1975; records of your parents' financial status; records related to your student employment that are subject to other laws and are administered by the Human Resources office; medical and psychological records (which will be released only to a healthcare professional designated by you); and, if you signed a voluntary waiver of access, letters of recommendation related to admission, candidacy for awards, and candidacy for employment—these records may be used only for the purpose originally intended. You may see any of your available records within 45 days after submitting a written request to the Registration and Records office, either in person or by mail. You will receive an interpretation of the record upon request, at or after the time that access is granted.

Release to Hamline Faculty and Staff: Your records are available to members of the faculty and staff (school officials) who have a legitimate need for them, as determined by the administrator of the office responsible for maintenance of the record.

Release to Others: Except as specified below, your records will be released only upon completion of a consent form or letter you have signed. Any such release will include a notice that further release by the recipient is prohibited by law. A record of the release will be maintained. Records about you will be released without your consent to your parents if you are a dependent as defined by the Internal Revenue Service; to federal officers as prescribed by law; as required by state law; to agencies or individuals conducting educational research (provided that the administrator of the records is satisfied concerning the legitimacy of the research effort and the confidentiality to be maintained by the researcher); to agencies responsible for accreditation of the institution or its programs; in response to a lawful subpoena, after making reasonable attempts to provide prior notification and opportunity for objection by you; and to institutional security officers when necessary for a criminal investigation.

Retention of Records: Hamline University reserves the right to maintain only those records it considers useful and to set retention schedules for various categories of those records. However, the administrator responsible for each category of records will ensure that a record being challenged is not destroyed prior to resolution of the dispute.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

Financial aid eligibility is based on satisfactory academic progress (SAP) standards that Hamline University Office of Financial Aid is required by the U. S. Department of Education to establish, publish, and apply. The Financial Aid Office measures academic performance and enforces SAP standards to ensure that financial aid recipients progress toward completion of their degree or certificate program. Students who fail to meet these standards become ineligible to receive financial aid until compliant with all of the requirements detailed in this policy.

To demonstrate Satisfactory Academic Progress, a student's academic performance must meet two main SAP components. The first is a qualitative component, represented by grade point average (GPA). The second is a quantitative component measured by credit completion (the ratio between attempted and completed credits) and the maximum timeframe to complete the degree or certificate program.

Section 1. Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress

- A. Grade Point Average – All graduate and professional students must maintain a cumulative GPA that is equivalent to the graduation standards published by their program.
- B. Credit Completion – Students must complete 67% of all credits attempted. A completed credit has a grade of A, B, C, D, HP, or P. Withdrawals, incompletes, and repeated courses are included in attempted credits.
- C. Maximum Time Frame – All students are expected to finish their degree or certificate within an acceptable period of time. Financial aid recipients may continue to receive federal aid through their cumulative attempted credit that equals 150% of the required number of credits needed to complete their program, including transfer credits from another college that apply to the Hamline program. Students who require developmental coursework may appeal to have the 150% limit extended.

Minimum Academic Progress Standards for Financial Aid

Cumulative Attempted Credits	Completion Rate
Up to 9.0 credits	50%
9.1+ credits	67%

Section 2. Definitions/Conditions

- A. Credit - A credit is the unit by which academic work is measured.
- B. Attempted credit - An attempted credit includes all credits for which you are registered at the beginning of each term.
- C. Cumulative credits - Cumulative credits represent the total number of credits evaluated (attempted and earned) for all periods of enrollment at the University, including summer and J-terms or terms for which the student did not receive aid.

- D. Earned credits - Earned credits are those that are successfully completed with a grade of A, B, C, D, HP, and P and all plus and minus variations. Grades of I, W, N, F, and EX, or drops are not counted as earned credits. Audit credits are not counted as attempted or earned credits.
- E. Grade Point Average (GPA) - The GPA is calculated using a grade point value outlined in the catalog for grades A, B, C, D, and F and all plus or minus variations. Although a grade of P or HP will count as credit earned, it carries no grade point value.
- F. Incompletes - An "I" or "EX" are included in the cumulative credits attempted. These credits cannot be used as earned credits until a passing grade is assigned.

- G. Repeat Credits - Repeats may be allowed in order to improve a grade or meet program requirements. They are included in credit completion and maximum time frame standards. The most recent grade will become the grade calculated for GPA.
- H. Transfer Credits - Grades associated with transfer credits are not included in the cumulative GPA calculation. Transfer credits accepted by Hamline University that are applicable to the current degree program apply toward the maximum time frame calculation for that program.
- I. Change of Degree, and Dual Degree - Many students receive multiple awards from Hamline University. Only attempted credits eligible for application toward the student's current degree program will count toward the maximum time frame of that degree. Attempted and earned credits under all degrees will be included in the calculation of GPA and credit completion. Students who change degree or seek a dual degree may appeal for an extension of the maximum time frame provision of this policy. Appeals will be evaluated on an individual, case-by-case basis.
- J. Consortium/Joint Program Credits - Credits accepted by the University are included with attempted and earned credit totals.

Section 3. Implementation

Academic progress for every financial aid applicant will be monitored after each semester, including summer term. If the program is less than one year in length the review will take place at the mid-point. All of a student's academic coursework is considered in the review process, whether the student received aid that term or not. The assessment will be based on the student's entire academic record, including all transfer credit hours accepted.

Because grades may not be available before the next scheduled term begins, it is possible that financial aid may be disbursed before the review is conducted.

In the event that a student is found to be ineligible for the financial aid that has been disbursed due to failure to meet one of the standards, the aid that was disbursed will be canceled and returned to the appropriate program(s). If the student successfully appeals and is granted a probationary term, the aid can be reinstated for that term.

- A. Financial Aid Warning Status - If the student does not meet either the GPA or Credit Completion standard, the student will be placed on Financial Aid warning for the next registered term. While on warning status, students are eligible to receive financial aid. To be removed from financial aid warning status, the student must meet the program's minimum cumulative GPA requirement and credit completion standards. A student who has reached the maximum time frame prior to completing the program will no longer be eligible for financial aid.

- B. Financial aid ineligibility/suspension - Students who do not meet the minimum cumulative GPA and/or credit completion ratio or do not meet the terms of financial aid probation will be no longer eligible for federal, state or institutional aid. Students may be eligible for private loan programs and outside assistance that does not require SAP.

Provided the student's academic status allows for registration, s/he may attend the University at his or her own expense until the minimum cumulative GPA and credit completion requirement has been met.

Hamline University may immediately deem a student ineligible for financial aid in the event of extraordinary circumstances, such as a student who registers for but does not earn any credits for two consecutive terms, or a student who demonstrates an attendance pattern that abuses the receipt of financial aid.

Students who failed to meet these standards due to unusual circumstances may appeal the financial aid SAP suspension status.

- C. Academic suspension - Students who have been suspended by the University are no longer eligible for financial aid. If a student is readmitted, s/he must complete the SAP appeal process. Eligibility for financial aid will be determined based on financial aid SAP standards through a review of the academic record.

Section 4. Right to Petition

A student who is unable to achieve satisfactory academic progress and is suspended from enrollment and/or financial aid has the right to petition based on unusual or extenuating circumstances, such as medical or personal problems. The student may petition the financial aid suspension if:

- The record shows that the student has now earned the required cumulative minimum GPA and credit completion ratio to meet SAP standards.
- The student is readmitted after suspension by the University.
- Unusual circumstances interfered with the student's ability to meet SAP standards, including but not limited to:
  - Illness, accident, or injury experienced by the student or a significant person in the student's life.
  - Death of a family member or significant person in the student's life.
  - Divorce experienced by the student or parent.
  - Reinstatement after an academic dismissal or extended break in the student's enrollment.

- o Personal problems or issues with spouse, family, roommate, or other significant person.
- o Exceeding time frame while in a second undergraduate or dual degree program or as a result of changing major.

To petition, students must submit to the Financial Aid Office the following:

- A statement from the student explaining the nature of the extenuating circumstances that contributed to the SAP deficiency.
- Third party documentation to support the circumstances, if applicable.
- An explanation of how the barriers to academic success have been removed.
- Approved academic plan developed by the student and academic personnel from student's program office.

State Eligibility and Complaint Process

State Eligibility

Hamline University, like all higher education institutions, is required to obtain authorization from individual states to enroll students residing outside of Minnesota. Hamline can enroll students residing in most states, but please confirm whether your state is among the eligible states. Eligibility by state is available at www.hamline.edu/academics/online-state-eligibility/.

Complaint Process

Hamline University is committed to providing outstanding online education. If you have a question, concern, or complaint about your online education experience at Hamline, please review our complaint process for online education at Hamline at www.hamline.edu/academics/online-state-eligibility/#complaints.

Student Status (Full-Time/Part-Time Status)

For Hamline graduate students, full-time status is defined as 8 semester credits per term, three-quarter-time is 6 semester credits per term, and half-time status is 4 semester credits per term.

Technology Use

Hamline University recognizes the growing importance of technology as a means to support its missions of education, research and service, and therefore provides faculty, students and staff with access to technology, which includes a high-speed local area network, access to shared network software and storage space, public computing facilities, support services, on-line Library databases and access to the Internet. In return users of Hamline's technology must be committed to complying with university policies and applicable law on appropriate use of these systems. All users of Hamline's technology are expected to observe the highest standards of responsibility and ethics. In general this means that an individual's use of technology should not infringe on the rights of other users, utilize an unfair share of system resources, or interfere with the normal operation of the computer system.

Because we are an academic community, the faculty, students and staff of Hamline University honor intellectual property, respect the privacy of data, and respect the rights of others. As a carrier of information, Hamline University does not subject users' files to prior review. However, the University does make its best effort to educate the community in responsible use and respond when violations are pointed out.

Each information technology resource—those existing on campus as well as external ones to which we are connected—has an owner. Attempts, even unsuccessful ones, to use or access any resource without the permission of the owner are a violation of this policy. All assessors must respect conditions of access and use stipulated by the owner. Although individuals are not the owners of accounts assigned to them (Hamline University is the owner), they are the owners of the files they create, and have rights to privacy and responsibilities to control access by others. You must respect others' rights when you communicate with them over networks. Anything less than adherence to the letter and spirit of copyright laws and regulations is unethical and possibly illegal. Users must obtain permission of the creator or publisher to copy software written by others. Users must abide by license agreements controlling copying and use of software and data files of all kinds (text, audio, graphics, video, etc.)

University resources are provided solely for the education and research mission of Hamline University and may not be used for commercial or for-profit purposes. Users who express opinions and positions through the university's IT resources must make clear that these opinions and positions are those of the individual who posts them, not of the university. Because Hamline University is the owner of all IT resources granted to users, the university reserves the right to deny use to those who have used them in an irresponsible manner. Offenders may also be subject to disciplinary action through existing structures for faculty, students and staff, as described in relevant handbooks.

People who use both on-campus and external network media (including any communication performed on the network for any purpose) must do so responsibly and in a manner that constitutes respectful behavior as defined in the faculty, staff, and student handbooks. It is unethical not to adhere to this type of behavior, even when communicating with people outside the Hamline community. For example, no form of harassment, as defined in the student, faculty and staff handbooks, will be tolerated within any media. In addition, all communications must include the sender's complete network address, unless the service explicitly invites anonymous communication. If someone requests you stop communicating electronically with him/her, you are required to do so immediately.

Questions concerning this policy should be directed to the Chief Information Officer, 651-523-2630.

For the full, detailed listing of all technology related policies, go to <http://www.hamline.edu/policies/technology-use>.

Time Limits

Program Completion for Degree Program Students

Degree programs are to be completed within seven years, except for the DPA which must be completed with ten. In extenuating circumstances, the student may make a written request to the program chair/dean for an extension of the limit. The letter should outline the reasons for the request and a time line for completing degree requirements.

Program Completion for Non-Degree Students

Licensure program completion has no time limits; however, students should note that Hamline University retains the right to modify course planners to reflect program changes. If changes occur, students will be given one-year advance notice of the change.

Transcripts

Transcripts of all Hamline University coursework (other than School of Law) can be obtained by submitting an online request in Piperline (www.hamline.edu/piperline) or by sending a signed request (see www.hamline.edu/transcript).

For the protection of students and former students, transcripts will not be faxed and all transcript requests must be personally signed. No transcript will be released until all financial obligations to Hamline have been met.

Transcripts and other documents submitted from other institutions and agencies are the property of Hamline University and will not be reissued to applicants, students, alumni, or any other parties.

Transfer Credit/Credit Equivalencies

Transfer of Credit

Credit may be transferred onto a student's graduate degree transcript from Hamline's Graduate Continuing Studies program and from other accredited institutions subject to certain limitations. Grade points are not transferable to Hamline. In other words, approved transfer credit will not affect the Hamline GPA. All transfer credit must be earned at regionally accredited institutions.

Students may apply for credit transfer with the assistance of their advisor. The Application for Transfer Credit form is available from each program office. Official sealed transcripts, mailed directly from the other institution to the program office, are required to support transfer credit application. The program office, in conjunction with the registrar determines the eligibility of transfer-of-credit requests, which may be submitted once a student is advanced to candidacy. Transcripts and other documents submitted from other institutions or agencies are the property of Hamline University and will not be reissued to applicants, students, alumni, or any other party.

TIME LIMITS FOR FINAL PAPER/PROJECT
PAPER/PROJECT	PROGRAM	TIME LIMIT
Thesis I and II	The Creative Writing Programs (MFA)	Each thesis registration must be completed in two semesters. If the student is unable to do so, he/she must re-register and pay for the course again.
Master's Thesis	School of Business	2 Terms
Capstone	School of Business	1 Term
Dissertation I-V	School of Business	Dissertations should be completed within one-and-a-half to two years.
Capstone	School of Education	Students have three consecutive terms, starting with the term of registration, to complete the capstone. Students re-register if their capstones are not completed within three consecutive terms. The original capstone committee members are not obligated to continue. Students are eligible for one extra consecutive-term in the form of a capstone extension, which must be requested by the student.
Dissertation I-IV	School of Education	Dissertations must be completed within the seven-year program time limit. Extensions may be granted upon request to the department chair.

The following information outlines various programs and transfer credit policies. Please contact the program office with specific questions.

Licensure Program Equivalencies

Students pursuing licensure may be granted equivalence for courses taken at other institutions. Courses are not transferred onto the student's Hamline transcript. The equivalency is noted on the student's course planner, an outline of a student's requirements for completing the licensure program.

- Course Materials: Some courses may require additional materials such as course packets and CDs. The cost for these materials may be added to the student's account. Please contact the program for more specific information. When course materials are required, the corresponding cost covers the photocopying as well as the cost of procuring copyright permission from the publisher(s).
- Other Fees: Occasionally, a fee to cover special materials, supplies, or food will be added to the cost of the course.

Withdrawing from a Program

Any student who wishes to withdraw completely from a program must notify the program office in writing.

Academic Programs

College of Liberal Arts

The Creative Writing Programs (CWP) in the College of Liberal Arts offer a deep immersion in the process and craft of creative writing taught by award-winning practicing writers.

The college offers two graduate degree options: the master of fine arts in writing (MFA), and the low-residency master of fine arts in writing for children and young adults (MFAC). These degrees prepare students who wish to specialize in creative writing and to teach writing at the college level. The MFA is offered full- or part-time; provides depth and breadth in fiction, poetry, and creative nonfiction; and offers interdisciplinary electives. The MFAC is one of only a few programs in the country that focuses exclusively on writing for young readers. Students can complete this program in just over two years. The Creative Writing Programs in the CLA house all creative writing at the university, including the bachelor of fine arts (BFA) degree. They also publish Water-Stone Review, an award-winning national literary magazine.

Master of Fine Arts in Writing (MFA)

The Master of Fine Arts in Writing is part of The Creative Writing Programs (CWP) at Hamline University. The MFA is a terminal degree for students who wish to pursue careers as writers and/or who want to teach writing at the college level. Hamline's MFA program, established in 1994, was the first MFA degree in creative writing in Minnesota. It is distinguished from many writing programs around the country by its interdisciplinary emphasis and its encouragement of multi-genre explorations.

The program, offered full- or part-time, allows students to develop the process and craft of writing in a rigorous, engaged, and supportive environment. Our small class sizes provide an intimate setting in which students will establish trust and rapport with classmates and receive one-on-one advising and feedback from their professors.

Many students will focus primarily on one genre in the advanced stage of the program as they move toward thesis. Students can choose from poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction (e.g., the essay, memoir, biography, etc.), children's literature, or any combination of genres. A number of elective course are also taught on topics such as composition theory & pedagogy, graphic novel and flash fiction to name a few.

MFA Degree Requirements (Total 48 credits)

Core Seminar (4 credits)

The MFA journey begins with a core seminar course, "Writers and Readers: Creators Both." The course is a reading-intensive examination of the relationship between reading and writing.

Students expand their knowledge of the craft of writing and the use of literary texts as guides for their own work. They also learn the value of giving and receiving constructive feedback, and increase their understanding of the creative process and of the relationship between writer and reader. After successful completion of the Core Seminar, and with the recommendation of the core professor, the student becomes a degree candidate. The next phase includes six writing courses and three electives.

- WRIT 8000 - MFA Core

Writing Courses (24 credits)

MFA students complete a total of six writing courses. One must be a fundamentals course covering craft techniques in depth in one of the genres. (Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Fiction, Creative Nonfiction, or Poetry). Another must be an advanced course in the genre in which the student does his/her thesis (Advanced Workshop: Fiction, Creative Nonfiction, or Poetry). Students choose from an array of other writing courses that are offered each term.

Groundings Course - choose one (4 credits):

- WRIT 8110 - Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Poetry
- WRIT 8120 - Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Creative Nonfiction
- WRIT 8130 - Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Fiction

Advanced Course - choose one (4 credits):

- WRIT 8310 - Advanced Poetry
- WRIT 8320 - Advanced Creative Nonfiction
- WRIT 8330 - Advanced Fiction

Topics (16 credits)

These include The Literary Memoir, The Personal Essay, Lyric Essay, The Novel, Point of View, Slipstream Fiction, The Short Story, Form and Vision in Poetry: Ode & Elegy, Form and Vision in Poetry: The Long Poem & Lyric Sequence, and more.

Electives (12 credits):

MFA students choose three elective courses (or 12 credits) to complement their exploration of the writing craft and expand their knowledge of other areas.

Capstone (8 credits):

The MFA capstone is a two-part process, Thesis 1 (WRIT 8491) and Thesis 2 (WRIT 8492) respectively. Each is one semester long. If necessary, Thesis 1 or 2 can be extended to two semesters.

- WRIT 8491 - Thesis I - Thesis 1 requires a completed draft of the envisioned work. During this phase, students work with their primary advisor on content, craft, and process. At the end of Thesis 1, the student and primary advisor meet to identify the strengths and weaknesses of the work and to discuss revisions.

- WRIT 8492 - Thesis II - Students then register for Thesis 2 in which they revise the draft into a book-length work of acceptable literary quality that shows mastery of the craft. Both primary and secondary advisors read and critique the final draft. Students also are required to write an artist's statement in which they discuss their process and goals in writing the thesis and explore the subjects and themes contained therein.

Mid-Point Advising:

After completion of six courses, MFA students meet with their faculty advisor to discuss their goals and progress in the program. Under consideration are the student's plans for thesis, including the choice of genre(s), prospective thesis advisors, and timeline for completion of degree requirements.

MFA Application Requirements:

- Complete application (online at www.hamline.edu/gls/admission/apply\_mfa.html).
- Complete questionnaire.
- Critical Essay: Write a 3-4 page critical essay, focusing on an element of craft or a particular subject in a book you admire as a writer.
- Writing sample: Attach a 20-page creative writing sample. Prose should be double-spaced. Choose whatever you regard as your best work.

- Two letters of recommendation. Request these letters from two people familiar with your academic and/or professional qualifications.
- Any supplemental materials you wish the admission committee to consider.

Master of Fine Arts in Writing for Children and Young Adults (MFA)

The Master of Fine Arts in Writing for Children and Young Adults (MFAC) is part of The Creative Writing Programs (CWP) at Hamline University. The MFAC program offers an exciting opportunity to those individuals who wish to write fiction, nonfiction, and poetry for children and young adults. This program, established in 2007, is a natural extension of the Master of Fine Arts in Writing that Hamline established in 1994.

The MFA in Writing for Children and Young Adults is a low-residency program that requires limited, intense periods of time on campus. Students and faculty congregate twice a year, each for eleven days. During the residencies, students attend lectures and workshops. They are then assigned to an advisor to work with throughout the semester. The low-residency model accommodates working adults and those who do not wish to or cannot relocate to attend college.

The program is made up of five residencies and four semesters.

Residencies:

Each January and July, faculty and students gather for eleven days of intensive—and exhilarating—lectures, workshops, seminars, and readings devoted exclusively to writing for children and young adults.

Our unique, comprehensive program is not defined by specific required courses, rather it examines the following subjects in depth over the period of five residencies:

- Elements of the craft
- The writing process
- Forms of writing (e.g., picture book, novel—fantasy, mystery, science fiction, historical; nonfiction; poetry, etc.)
- The history of children's and YA literature (including classic texts)
- The business of publishing
- The writer's life (e.g., keeping the work going, finding and then working with an agent and editor, promoting one's work, teaching, etc.)

Children and young adult literature will be explored through a required reading list, lectures during the residencies by experts in the field, and on-line presentations given by Hamline University faculty in the School of Education. Additionally, guest presenters such as agents, editors, and publishers bring the business-of-books to real life.

Faculty, visiting writers, and graduating students deliver lectures that examine a broad range of issues for writers in the field. Workshops and seminars are led by faculty. Personal attention for students is assured by the low student-faculty ratio that is a hallmark of our program. Readings allow students and faculty alike to share their latest creative work with attentive and enthusiastic audiences. All residency events will be held on the Hamline University campus. Summer living quarters will be on the Hamline campus as well, while winter living quarters will be at a nearby hotel with shuttle-bus service provided for students and faculty to travel easily from their lodgings to campus and back. Following each residency, the student works with a faculty advisor who provides mentoring and detailed manuscript critique by way of monthly correspondence. During the final (fifth) residency, students present a formal lecture as well as a reading of their work.

Semesters:

In the first two semesters, students are required to submit—in addition to their creative writing—monthly critical responses to assigned works in the field. The assigned reading is designed to provide students with pertinent lessons in craft as well as a comprehensive overview of the field of children's literature in English. In the third semester, students must submit—in addition to their creative writing—a critical thesis of twenty or more pages on an aspect of children's/young adult literature, or an aspect of craft or literary theory pertaining to the field. In the fourth semester, students must submit a creative thesis: a book-length manuscript of original work (e.g., poems, short stories, picture books, a novel—middle grade or young adult, creative nonfiction).

MFA in Writing for Children and Young Adults Requirements (Total 52 Credits)

eDiscovery Certificate

The mounting volume of electronic communications, documents, and images is changing the very practice of law. The vast majority of discoverable information today is exchanged and stored electronically, but many legal professionals don't know how to pursue these materials effectively.

Postbaccalaureate students - students who have an undergraduate degree, but who want to return to school to further develop their skills and advance their careers - can earn an eDiscovery Certificate from Hamline.

The Hamline eDiscovery certificate is a two-semester program designed for working legal and IT professionals with evening classes that can be completed in nine months

With Hamline's eDiscovery Certificate, you'll be at the leading edge of eDiscovery innovation through:

- Extensive exposure to the principles, process, technology, risks, and opportunities associated with discovery of electronically stored information
- An internship providing an opportunity to apply classroom learning
- Hands-on training in a laboratory setting
- Detailed exposure to widely used eDiscovery technology
- All eDiscovery courses will be taught by nationally recognized attorneys and eDiscovery professionals in conjunction with Hamline Legal Studies professors

Hamline's eDiscovery program was developed in consultation with a curriculum committee comprised of some of the leading eDiscovery practitioners in the country, and was recently recognized by Sechel Ventures as one of "7 Great Cybercrime & eDiscovery Certificate Programs".

Hamline's eDiscovery courses are taught by nationally recognized attorneys and eDiscovery professionals in conjunction with the University's Legal Studies professors. Learn more about the faculty of the eDiscovery Program.

The renowned Hamline Legal Studies department provides law-related education and extra-curricular opportunities for Hamline undergraduates and post-baccalaureate paralegal students. Hamline University School of Law is a nationally ranked, ABA-accredited law school offering JD, Master's and certificate programs. Students in all Hamline legal programs collaborate with experienced faculty, share a first-class law library, and participate in a variety of hands-on, high impact learning opportunities including externships and clinics. Students apply classroom learning through on training in high-profile, critical technology platforms and services areas, as well as through an eDiscovery Practicum and 150-hour apprenticeship.

Due to the strength and national recognition of Hamline's eDiscovery program, Hamline is the first university to offer the Association of Certified E-Discovery Specialists' CEDS™ exam, the field's first certification exam. Students receive a discounted rate including training materials, exam and one year membership. The program has also been approved by the Minnesota Board of Continuing Legal Education for 45 CLE credits, and by the National Association of Legal Assistants for 20 CLE credits (including 3 hours of legal ethics).

Certificate Requirements

Semester I:

- LGST 6000 - Introduction to Electronic Discovery
- LGST 6010 - Electronic Discovery: A Practical Framework

Semester II:

- LGST 6020 - Managing Electronic Discovery
- LGST 6030 - Advanced Electronic Discovery: Emerging Issues
- LGST 6040 - Advanced Electronic Discovery: Technology Practicum
- LGST 6050 - eDiscovery Practicum

Academic Programs School of Business

East Hall, 651-523-2284

MS-A1740

1536 Hewitt Avenue

Saint Paul, MN 55104

The Hamline School of Business prepares the next generation of nonprofit, government, and business leaders to serve, collaborate, and lead in their organizations and communities. Our integrated approach, unlike any other, dissolves the narrow confines of business education to produce leaders who are forward-thinking, ethical, and have a broad worldview. At Hamline, students join a network of strong leaders prepared to effect change and be supported by faculty and staff members and alumni who are personally invested in their success.

Vision

Where the business, government, and non-profit sectors intersect to educate and collaborate for the common good.

Mission Statement

The Hamline School of Business is an inclusive community dedicated to the professional and personal development of our students, faculty and staff and to the advancement of the common good. We achieve our mission through teaching excellence, the integration of theory and practice, and the engagement of a network of stakeholders (including alumni and community partners) to address complex issues facing the business, government, and non-profit sectors. We see our mission firmly rooted within the values of Hamline University.

Doctorate in Public Administration (DPA)

The doctorate in public administration (DPA) is a cohort program that starts every other fall term. A cohort is a group of students who start the program together. This program is available at the Hamline University Saint Paul Campus. The Hamline University doctorate in public administration (DPA) is ideal for professionals who wish to build on the knowledge and experience they have already attained, who are anticipating their next career step, or who want to pursue the highest qualification in their profession.

The Hamline University doctorate in public administration (DPA) is a part-time program designed for working professionals interested in the in-depth analysis of state and local public policy issues. The program integrates theory and practice, service and values to foster students' critical thinking skills and scholarship. Students completing the Hamline

University doctorate in public administration (DPA) program should expect to achieve:

- Advanced public leadership skills and knowledge, with a focus on critical issues and challenges facing senior managers in governance and politics
- Mastery of the field of public administration, due to an in-depth exploration of contemporary ideas and practices related to public administration
- A substantial ability to work with, synthesize, and integrate public administration concepts
- Enhanced skills as producers and consumers of public administration research, applying this advanced knowledge to the field and to the workplace
- An improved ability to communicate public administration concepts to diverse audiences
- Enrichment through interaction with other reflective public administration practitioners

NOTE: Hamline recognizes that many professionals interested in public administration may have received master's degrees or extensive graduate-level education in fields other than public administration. To accommodate these students, the Hamline University School of Business offers options to prepare academically prior to entering the program.

DPA Degree Requirements

(Total of 48 credits, exam completion and dissertation completion/defense):

6 Required Core Courses (24 credits)

- GPA 8501 - Historical Foundations and Professional Development
- GPA 8502 - Research Methods
- GPA 8503 - Critical Issues for Public Administrators
- GPA 8504 - Advanced Organizational Theory and Leadership
- GPA 8506 - Advanced Seminar in Public Policy
- GPA 8507 - Dissertation I: Advanced Research Methods

4 Elective Courses (16 credits)

Choose from any School of Business course level 8500 or above.

Comprehensive Exam:

After Completion of core and elective coursework, students must complete and pass the written comprehensive exam before defending a dissertation proposal.

Doctoral Dissertation (8 credits)

The completion and defense of a dissertation is the final requirement in the doctorate of public administration (DPA) program. The DPA candidate must demonstrate a high level of academic competence, which typically results in a significant contribution of new knowledge in the field. The DPA dissertation usually focuses on applying theory to practice in the contexts of critical public issues and the student's professional experience. To advance to degree candidacy, the DPA student is required to complete the Dissertation I course then register for dissertation work (Dissertation II through Dissertation V) for four consecutive semesters. Students must successfully defend the first three chapters (dissertation proposal) after Dissertation III before advancing to candidacy and registering for Dissertation IV and V.

- GPA 8992 - Dissertation II
- GPA 8993 - Dissertation III
- GPA 8994 - Dissertation IV
- GPA 8995 - Dissertation V

Time Limit: New students enter in the fall semester, and normally complete most or all of their core courses together. (Exceptions can be arranged with the approval of a student's advisor and the program director.) Satisfactory/steady progress is typically completion of one course per term, two or three terms per year. Normally students complete all required core courses within the first three years of study.

NOTE: Seven years is the maximum time allowed for students to finish their core coursework in the doctorate in public administration (DPA) program. Ten years is the maximum time allowed for students to complete the DPA including the dissertation. These requirements are consistent with other doctoral program requirements (as per the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs Administration Committee on Doctoral Programs, 1993).

DPA Application Requirements:

- Completed application form (available online at: www.hamline.edu/graduate/admission/hsb.html)
- Personal Statement. A one- to two-page personal statement, typewritten and double-spaced, detailing:
  - why you have chosen Hamline University,
  - how the degree program will help you meet your career goals, and
  - which concentrations or policy areas are of interest to you and why.
- Professional résumé or curriculum vitae.
- Official transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate work. If your transcripts are in a language other than English, you must submit both the original and an official or a certified course by course English translation. The Hamline University School of Business reserves the right to require applicants to have their academic records evaluated by an academic credential evaluator.
- Three letters of recommendation, written by people familiar with your academic and/or professional history, detailing your specific qualifications to pursue advanced study (letters from family members are unacceptable).
- Writing sample. A sample of your academic or work-related writing, typewritten, at least three pages in length, written in the last two years, and written solely by you.

Dual Degree and Joint Degree Programs

The dual degree and joint degree programs allow students to receive graduate training across sectors and disciplines.

Dual Degrees

Hamline's dual degree programs will put you to work, gaining hands-on training across sectors and endowing you with the skills and experiences employers want.

- Business Administration and Nonprofit Management (MBA/MNM)
- Public Administration and Nonprofit Management (MPA/MNM)
- Business Administration and Public Administration (MBA/MPA)

Students can complete two graduate degrees in 18 courses (72 credits)—fewer than the 24 courses (96 credits) required to complete the degrees separately. The programs are designed for working professionals with evening classes and flexible scheduling.

Why a dual degree?

- Complex issues of today require a multi-sector approach, with government agencies, nonprofit organizations, and private companies all playing critical roles.
- Developing skills and knowledge in other sectors can improve performance in their chosen sector and increase opportunities for cross-sector partnerships.
- Paul Light of the Brookings Institution calls it "The New Public Service" - professionals today are "deeply committed to making a difference," but unlikely to stay in one sector throughout their careers.

More information

Contact the graduate admission office at 651-523-2900 or gradprog@hamline.edu.

Joint Degree Programs with Law

In collaboration with the School of Law, the School of Business offers law students the opportunity to earn two degrees which combine law with public administration, business administration, or nonprofit management.

Three joint degrees are offered:

- Law & Public Administration (JD/MPA)
- Law & Business Administration (JD/MBA)
- Law & Nonprofit Management (JD/MNM)

Hamline University law students who have completed one year of study at the School of Law and who have grade point average of 2.5 or higher are eligible to apply for a joint degree program.

More information on Joint Degrees

For more information on joint degrees, contact the School of Business at 651-523-2284 or hsb@hamline.edu or you may contact the graduate admission office at 651-523-2900 or gradprog@hamline.edu.

Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management (MNM)

The Hamline University master in nonprofit management (MNM) program gives working professionals the practical knowledge, tools, and skills they need to manage effectively and meet the complex fiscal and economic challenges of the nonprofit sector. The Hamline University master in nonprofit management (MNM) program is recognized as the premier master's degree program in the region dedicated exclusively to practitioners and professionals in the discipline. The curriculum content combines the theories of the nonprofit management discipline with organizational practices and skills training of the sector.

The master in nonprofit management (MNM) is available at the Hamline University Saint Paul campus.

All students in the master in nonprofit management (MNM) program are required to complete forty-eight academic credits. This includes eight required core courses, three elective courses, and one final course (either Capstone Skills Development or Master's Thesis). For some students without nonprofit work experience, an internship with a nonprofit organization is also a program requirement.

The master in nonprofit management (MNM) program begins with a fundamentals course, which provides students with a sound foundation in the history, theory, and management standards of the nonprofit sector. Other courses (required and elective) provide working professionals with a base of knowledge in a variety of subjects, each necessary to build effective management skills.

MNM Degree Requirements (Total of 48 credits):

8 Required Core Courses (32 credits)

- GPA 8002 - Fundamentals of Nonprofit Management
- GPA 8020 - Organizational Theory and Behavior
- GPA 8032 - Financial Management for Nonprofit Organizations
- GPA 8052 - Human Resource Management for Nonprofit Organizations
- GPA 8062 - Law for Nonprofit Organizations
- GPA 8070 - Research Methods
- GPA 8110 - Governance and Planning in Nonprofit Organizations
- GPA 8362 - Fundraising for Nonprofits

3 Elective courses (12 credits)

Three elective courses must be chosen from among the School of Business graduate level courses.

1 Final Course (4 credits)

Choose from:

- GPA 8492 - Capstone Skills Development for Nonprofits
- GPA 8495 - Master's Thesis

Additional Requirements

- Completion of an internship (GPA 8494) for students with limited nonprofit sector experience.

Time Limit: Generally, it will take students 2-3 years to complete the traditional MNM program; however, 7 years is the allowed maximum.

MNM Application Requirements

- Completed application form (available online at: www.hamline.edu/graduate/admission/hsb.html)
- Personal statement. A one-to two-page personal statement, typewritten and double-spaced, detailing:

Master of Arts in Public Administration (MPA)

The Hamline University master in public administration (MPA) gives working professionals the practical knowledge, tools, and skills they need to manage effectively and to meet the complex fiscal and economic challenges of their sector.

The master in public administration (MPA) is available at the Hamline University Saint Paul and Minneapolis campuses. The flexible model is offered in St. Paul and the online hybrid model is offered in Minneapolis.

All students in the master in public administration (MPA) program are required to complete forty-eight academic credits. This includes eight required core courses, three elective courses, one final course (either Capstone Skills Development or Master's Thesis). For some students, an internship with a government entity is also a program requirement.

The master in public administration (MPA) program begins with a foundations course, which provides students with a sound foundation in the history, theory, and management standards of the government sector. Other courses (required and elective) provide working professionals with a base of knowledge in a variety of subjects, each necessary to build effective management skills.

NOTE: Requirements for the online hybrid master in public administration (MPA) programs are slightly different. Students are required to take 12 set courses.

MPA Degree Requirements (Total of 48 credits)

8 Required Core Courses (32 credits)

- GPA 8000 - Foundations in Public Administration
- GPA 8010 - Professional Ethics
- GPA 8020 - Organizational Theory and Behavior
- GPA 8030 - Public Fiscal Management
- GPA 8040 - Public Policy Analysis
- GPA 8050 - Human Resource Management for Government
- GPA 8061 - Administrative Law
- GPA 8070 - Research Methods

3 Elective courses (12 credits)

Three elective courses must be chosen from among the School of Business graduate level courses.

1 Final Course (4 credits)

Choose from:

- GPA 8490 - Capstone Skills Development for Government
- GPA 8495 - Master's Thesis

Additional Requirements

- Completion of an economics course prior to taking Public Fiscal Management (GPA 8030) for students with no economics background.
- An internship (GPA 8494), for students with limited public sector experience.

Time Limit: Generally, it will take students 2-3 years to complete the traditional MPA program; however, 7 years is the allowed maximum.

MPA Application Requirements

- Completed application form (available online at: www.hamline.edu/graduate/admission/hsb.html)
- Personal statement. A one- to two-page personal statement, typewritten and double-spaced, detailing:
  - why you have chosen Hamline University,
  - how the degree program will help you meet your career goals, and
  - which concentrations or policy areas are of interest to you and why
- Professional résumé or curriculum vitae.
- Official transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate work. If your transcripts are in a language other than English, you must submit both the original and an official or a certified course by course English translation. The Hamline University School of Business reserves the right to require applicants to have their academic records evaluated by an academic credential evaluator.
- Two letters of recommendation, written by people familiar with your academic and/or professional history, detailing your specific qualifications to pursue advanced study (letters from family members are unacceptable).
- Writing sample. A sample of your academic or work-related writing, typewritten, at least three pages in length, written in the last two years, and written solely by you.

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

The master of business administration (MBA) program is designed as a modular program. The module topics surface in everyday activities and long-term planning for all organizations. Many programs provide stand-alone courses in these topics. Our approach is to integrate these topics throughout the core modules with repeated emphasis from a variety of perspectives.

The master of business administration (MBA) is available at the Hamline University Saint Paul and Minneapolis campuses as a cohort program. (A cohort is a group of students who start and finish a program together.)

All students in the master of business administration (MBA) program are required to complete forty-eight academic credits. This includes core and elective courses completed in six modules, completed in 24 months.

MBA Degree Requirements (Total of 48 credits)

Module 1 (8 credits):

Leading People with Integrity and Purpose

- MBA 8160 - Leadership Skills Development
- MBA 8140 - Critical Thinking
- MBA 8101 - Management & Organizational Behavior

Module 2 (8 credits):

Managing Financial Resources

- MBA 8250 - Financial Accounting
- MBA 8210 - Managerial Accounting
- MBA 8240 - Managerial Economics

Module 3 (8 credits):

Leveraging Organizational Resources

- MBA 8310 - Managerial Finance
- MBA 8350 - Marketing Management
- MBA 8330 - Managing in the Global Marketplace

Module 4 (8 credits):

Improving and Protecting Resources

- Elective (selected from approved list, below)
- MBA 8450 - Business Law and Regulatory Environment
- MBA 8470 - Managerial IT

Module 5 (8 credits):

Planning Change and Development (Part 1)

- Elective (selected from approved list, below)
- MBA 8420 - Strategic Financial Analysis
- MBA 8495 - Strategic Management and Capstone/Field Study I

Module 6 (8 credits):

Planning Change and Development (Part 2)

- Elective (selected from approved list, below)
- MBA 8496 - Strategic Management and Capstone/Field Study II

Additional Requirements

- Completion of undergraduate coursework in economics and statistics with a grade of B or better.

Concentrations

There are four concentrations within the master of business administration (MBA) program. Concentrations can be earned by completing three elective courses within the same subject area. Each allows a student to focus more deeply on one area of interest. Students may select three electives within their chosen concentration, but concentrations are not required. Currently, students may complete concentrations in marketing, finance, international management, or conflict management.

Elective Courses

A range of elective courses are available for students.

Conflict Management

- MBA 8010 - Negotiation Theory & Practice
- MBA 8011 - Conflict Management Systems Design
- MBA 8012 - Conflict Theories

Finance

- MBA 8020 - Corporate Finance
- MBA 8021 - Financial Institutions and Markets
- MBA 8022 - Finance Theory & Applications

International Management

- MBA 8031 - International Business Transactions
- MBA 8053 - International Marketing Management
- MBA 8097 - International Seminar
- MBA 8098 - Special Topics

Marketing

- MBA 8051 - Electronic Marketing
- MBA 8052 - Market Research
- MBA 8053 - International Marketing Management
- MBA 8098 - Special Topics

Program Sequence

- Semester 1 - Module 1 - 8 credits
- Semester 2 - Module 2 - 8 credits
- Semester 3 - Module 3 - 8 credits
- Semester 4 - Module 4 - 8 credits
- Semester 5 - Module 5 - 8 credits
- Semester 6 - Module 6 - 8 credits

Time Limit: The MBA is a 24-month cohort program; however, 7 years is the allowed maximum.

Grades

Grades below C do not count toward the 48 credits required to graduate. A student who earns a C- or below in a course within a required MBA module must repeat that course. When the course is repeated and a grade of C or better is earned, the GPA is recalculated. Students will be advised to retake the course at the next available opportunity to maintain degree progression.

A student who earns a C- or below in an elective may choose to retake the elective, in which case his/her GPA will be recalculated if the grade earned is C or better. If a student chooses not to retake the elective and instead chooses a different elective, the grade remains part of the overall GPA calculation.

Students must successfully complete the core courses in modules 1 through 4 before they enter module 5.

MBA Application Requirements

- Completed application form/application fee. Application available online at: www.hamline.edu/graduate/admission/hsb.html. (If you submit a paper application, there is a non-refundable fee of $30. International applicants must pay a $100 application fee.)
- Official transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate work
  - Official sealed transcripts from a regionally accredited college or university should be sent directly from the institution to the Graduate Admissions Office.
  - If your transcripts are in a language other than English, you must submit both the original and an official or certified course by course English translation. The Hamline University School of Business reserves the right to require applicants to have their academic records evaluated by an academic credential evaluator.

- Minimum of two years of relevant post-baccalaureate work experience.
- Current résumé - A professional résumé including a chronological list of your employers, positions held, and job responsibilities.
- Personal statement - A 1-2 page personal statement, typewritten and double-spaced, detailing:
  - why you have chosen Hamline University,
  - how the degree program will help you meet your career goals, and
  - which concentrations or fields are of interest to you and why.
- Writing sample - A sample of your academic or work-related writing, typewritten, at least three pages in length, written in the last two years, and written solely by you.
- Three letters of recommendation written by people familiar with your academic and/or professional history, detailing your specific qualifications to pursue advanced study, and sent directly to the Office of Graduate Admission. (Letters from family members are unacceptable.) If your letters of recommendation are in a language other than English, please send the original letters and certified English translations.

Sequential Graduate Degree Completion

Graduates of the MBA, MPA, or MNM programs can return within 5 years of finishing their degree to complete a sequential degree with any of the other masters programs in the School of Business. They must complete the subsequent degree within 3 years of beginning work on the sequential degree. Students will be required to complete an additional 28-32 credits depending on degree sought. They may take additional electives if desired to gain greater depth in their second field.

Logistics below are based on current program structure and are subject to change as programs are revised.

MPA to MNM Sequential Degree Program Logistics* (28

credits): Students with an MPA returning to complete the MNM degree would follow the same degree completion requirements as if completing the dual degree. Review of their previous transcript will determine which 7 courses are required (6 core and 1 elective from the new field).

MNM to MPA Sequential Degree Program Logistics* (28

credits): Students with an MNM returning to complete the MPA degree would follow the same degree completion requirements as if completing the dual degree. Review of their previous transcript will determine which 7 courses are required (6 core and 1 elective from the new field).

MPA or MNM to MBA Sequential Degree Program Logistics***

(32 credits): Students with an MPA or MNM returning to complete the MBA need to complete MBA modules 2, 3, 5 & 6 for a total of 32 credits. Students may choose to take additional MBA electives if they want more breadth in the field.

MBA to MNM Sequential Degree Program Logistics* (28 credits)

Students with an MBA returning to complete an MNM will take the following courses:

- GPA 8002 Fundamentals of Nonprofit Management
- GPA 8032 Financial Management for Nonprofits
- GPA 8062 Law for Nonprofits
- GPA 8110 Governance and Planning for Nonprofits
- GPA 8362 Fundraising for Nonprofits
- GPA 8070 Research Methods
- GPA 8492 Capstone for Nonprofits

MBA to MPA Sequential Degree Program Logistics* (28 credits)

Students with an MBA returning to complete an MPA will take the following courses:

- GPA 8000 Foundations of Public Administration
- GPA 8030 Public Fiscal Management
- GPA 8040 Public Policy Analysis
- GPA 8050 Public Sector Human Resources
- GPA 8061 Administrative Law
- GPA 8070 Research Methods
- GPA 8490 Capstone for Government

Academic Programs School of Education

Drew Hall 66, 651-523-2600

MS-A1720

1536 Hewitt Avenue

Saint Paul, MN 55104

The School of Education (HSE) has a long history of providing coursework tailored to meet the needs of local and regional educators. Our vision is to inspire, challenge, and transform. HSE faculty and staff understand and respond to the needs of working adults and are committed to offering programs for adult learners that provide active and reflective learning in an atmosphere of mutual respect and intellectual challenge. More than 8,000 educators enroll in coursework through Hamline's School of Education. A variety of degree and licensure programs are offered to graduate students including:

- Master of Arts in Education (MAEd)
- Master of Arts in Education: Natural Science & Environmental Education (MAEd: NSEE)
- Master of Arts in English as a Second Language (MAESL)
- Master of Arts in Literacy Education (MALED)
- Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT)
- Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (MA-TESOL)
- Doctorate in Education (EdD)
- Initial Licensure Programs
- Additional Licensure Programs

In addition, HSE includes the Continuing Studies Department, Partnerships, and Initiatives Department, the Center for Excellence in Urban Teaching, and the Center for Global Environmental Education to meet your ongoing professional development needs.

Doctorate in Education (EdD)

The learning community structure and thematic curriculum of the doctorate in education (EdD) provide intellectually stimulating and collaborative teaching and learning. Each community remains together during a set of core courses, thus deepening personal connections and enriching shared experiences. Eight powerful themes are integrated into the curriculum: building community; constructivism/constructing knowledge; language/communication; child/adult development; technology; leadership; inquiry; and assessment. The themes form the nucleus for exploring and understanding current education ideas and issues. The quality of the doctoral experience results from the meaningful program design, the exploration of eight program themes and their implementation, the responsive setting of the learning climate, and the skills and expertise of the faculty and students.

EdD Degree Requirements (Total 68 credits and 3.0 GPA):

12 Required Core Courses (36 credits)

- GED 8501 - The Learning Organization
- GED 8502 - Educational Foundations
- GED 8504 - Educational Organizations
- GED 8505 - Leadership
- GED 8507 A - Frameworks for Inquiry
- GED 8507 B - Frameworks for Inquiry
- GED 8508 - Advanced Inquiry
- GED 8513 - Paideia Seminar: Knowledge Construction
- GED 8514 - Doctoral Writing Seminar
- GED 8515 - Paideia Seminar: Community Building
- GED 8516 - Equity and Social Justice Policy
- GED 8517 - Paideia Seminar: Inquiry and Reflection

Elective Courses (16 credits)

(see below)

Dissertation (16 credits)

- GED 8991 - Dissertation Credit I
- GED 8992 - Dissertation Credit II
- GED 8993 - Dissertation Credit III
- GED 8994 - Dissertation Credit IV

Advancement to Candidacy

Required coursework must be completed prior to advancement to candidacy.

Grade Requirement

Students must maintain a minimum grade of 3.0 (B grade or higher) in all coursework.

Successful completion of the following

- a written examination
- a synthesis presentation
- a portfolio
- a dissertation

Electives

Sixteen semester credits of electives are required. Students may begin taking electives during the next term following admission. However, EdD students are discouraged from co-enrolling in electives during their first year of required courses. The elective requirement may be satisfied by taking electives at Hamline, at another regionally accredited university, or through a combination of these two options. Each is explained below.

Electives at Hamline

Students may use selected 8000-level graduate courses from HSE master's programs, though course restrictions apply and registration may need to be approved. It is important that students consult their faculty advisers to determine which courses may be available to them. In addition, selected courses in the School of Business, the School of Law, and master's-level course work in The Creative Writing Programs may be used to fulfill elective credits. Prerequisites apply as indicated. HU continuing studies or professional development courses may not be used to fulfill elective credit.

EdD students who earn an administrative license through the HU School of Education may apply these credits toward their electives, whether they earned the license before or during their doctoral work. That is, Hamline University administrative license alumni may transfer 16 credits. Note: New administrative licensure students must apply for admission to that program separately. Licensure course work may precede, overlap, or extend beyond earning an EdD.

Electives at Other Institutions

EdD students may transfer a maximum of 8 semester credits of course work from another regionally accredited university. This credit may have been earned prior to admission to the EdD program or it may be taken while students are registered for courses in the EdD program. Continuing studies or professional development courses will not be accepted to satisfy doctoral requirements. Approval to transfer credit depends on meeting transfer credit criteria. For additional information, see the EdD program website or contact the program administrator.

If EdD students wish to transfer graduate courses from international universities, transcripts should be accompanied by translation and recommendations from one of several educational services recommended by HU Student Administrative Services for this purpose.

EdD Application Requirements:

- Completed application (available online at www.hamline.edu/education/admission/apply\_online\_instructions.html)
- Personal statement of educational aims.
- Resume.
- Official sealed transcripts of undergraduate and graduate work.
- Three recommendations, using forms provided with the application form, with at least two from instructors, employers, or colleagues who are familiar with the applicant's learning capacity, leadership, and community-building capacity as described on the form.
- Submission of a short, article-length piece of writing (ten pages) demonstrating ability to synthesize and portray thinking about a critical issue in education as described in the application form.
- Interview with a faculty committee following successful review of application and materials described above.

Master of Arts in Education (MAEd)

Designed to help educators meet the challenges of today's schools and society, this program continues Hamline's tradition of relevant curriculum, outstanding faculty, and personal attention. The curriculum is strongly inspired by the HSE conceptual framework: build learning communities, advocate for equity and social justice, construct knowledge, and practice reflection and inquiry. The curriculum builds on your knowledge and prior experience and links theory to practice. Instructional strategies promote reflection, engagement, and collaboration. At the heart of the curriculum is a set of guiding questions that stimulate thought-provoking discussion and professional growth. Elective credits are chosen based on personal and professional interests and needs. A Hamline certificate or license may be applied as electives.

The MAEd program is available in three formats:

- Traditional MAEd - The traditional option meets on Hamline's Saint Paul campus and is conducted in a traditional classroom setting.
- Online MAEd - Required courses are facilitated by faculty online during the fall and spring terms. Active engagement in learning is expected beginning with the first week of class; weekly learning schedules are posted, and synchronous activities may be required.
- Off-Campus MAEd - Required courses combine online and face-to-face learning, allowing you to complete your MAEd alongside a committed group of collaborative teachers and learners in a location convenient to you.

MAEd Degree Requirements (Total 34 credits and 3.0 GPA)

24 Required Core Credits

- GED 8020 - Explorations: Reflection, Community Building, and Knowledge
- GED 8021 - Designing Effective Learning Environments
- GED 8022 - Action Research: Practice and Application
- GED 8024 - Educating for Equity and Social Justice
- GED 8025 A - Public Policy: Design and Action
- GED 8025 B - Public Policy: Design and Action
- GED 8023 - Capstone Practicum
- GED 8495 - Capstone

10 Elective Credits (selected by the student)

Half of the ten elective credits (5 credits) must be completed through Hamline University. Elective credits may be earned through 6000, 7000, or 8000-level Hamline University graduate courses or at other accredited institutions. Graduate work (either through Hamline University or another accredited institution) completed before admission into the MAEd program may be used towards elective credits, provided the transfer criteria are met. Transfer of prior credit occurs after successful completion of GED 8020. Most elective choices are made to meet students' personal curriculum and instructional needs. A Hamline certificate or licensure program may be used to fulfill the elective requirement.

MAEd Application Requirements:

- Completed application (online at www.hamline.edu/education/admission/apply\_online\_instructions.html)
- Goal Statement
  - a. Why have you decided to pursue graduate study?
  - b. How will the MAEd meet your personal and/or professional goals?
  - c. What outcomes do you expect as a result of the MAEd program at Hamline University?
- Official, sealed undergraduate degree transcript.
- Two letters of recommendation.

Master of Arts in English as a Second Language (MAESL)

If you have licensure or a certificate in ESL, TEFL, adult ESL, or bilingual education, you have the option of pursuing an advanced degree in ESL. Developed in consultation with experts in the field and designed for those currently teaching, the MAESL offers online and evening courses to accommodate working adults. MAESL graduates are ESL teachers/leaders who understand systems of language, the language-culture relationship, how these affect learning, and integrate technology into instruction. Courses integrate linguistics and literacy, feature practical applications, and are taught by experienced professionals.

MAESL Degree Requirements (Total 40-46 credits and 3.0 GPA):

The following outline shows the three different routes by which an MAESL can be obtained. Please refer to the section that reflects the program of interest to you. Bilingual licensure students should consult with an advisor about appropriate equivalencies for their bilingual coursework.

I. MAESL/TEFL Strand (41 credits)

Completion of the TEFL program or its equivalent (8 credits):

- ESL 6620 - TEFL Certificate Course
or
- ESL 6621 - TEFL Certificate Part I

MAESL Application Requirements:

- Completed application (available online at www.hamline.edu/education/admission/apply\_online\_instructions.html)
- Two letters of recommendation from professors with whom you have studied. These may include Hamline professors.
- Official sealed transcript of undergraduate and relevant graduate work. Hamline licensure and TEFL program graduates do not need to resubmit transcripts.
- Submit an academic paper dealing with a second language issue that shows that you can:
  - a. synthesize information from several sources; or
  - b. apply information from academic or research articles to your teaching or personal experience.
- MAESL students must have at least two years of high school or one year of college foreign language, or the equivalent. Foreign language study must be documented.

Master of Arts in Literacy Education (MALEd)

The courses in the Master of Arts in Literacy Education (MALED) will provide a comprehensive, rigorous focus on literacy instruction and leadership.

Acquired skills and knowledge

Teachers who graduate from the MALED program will:

- Develop the expertise, confidence and skills needed to become teacher leaders in their classrooms, schools and communities.
- Gain experience staying abreast of literacy theory, research and classroom application.
- Become supporters, promoters and advocates of literacy in schools and communities.

Conceptual framework and guiding questions

The Professional Education Program at Hamline University is committed to developing teacher-leaders who promote equity in schools and society, build communities of teachers and learners, construct knowledge, and practice thoughtful inquiry and reflection. This conceptual framework is reflected in a series of guiding questions woven throughout the MALED curriculum.

Each required course has a set of guiding questions. The following is a sampling from one of the required courses, GED 8030: Essentials in Literacy & Learning:

- What is literacy and how does the expanding definition of literacy affect teaching and learning?
- What is the relationship between literacy theories and beliefs, values and practices?

- How does a theoretical context for understanding research support study in diverse educational contexts?
- How can seminal literacy research in language, literacy and culture inform practice?
- What are the foundations of building and sustaining a learning community of literacy professionals?
- How do the essentials in literacy and learning contribute to the research base for the capstone?

MALED Degree Requirements (Total of 34 credits and 3.0 GPA):

The MALED includes 34 total credits, 24 required and 10 elective.

At least five of the ten elective credits should be literacy-focused. Most elective choices are made to meet students' professional learning needs. Credits may be earned through 6000, 7000, or 8000-level Hamline University Graduate Continuing Studies/Professional Development courses or at other accredited institutions.

The MALED provides a broad array of literacy-rich elective credit options and draws upon established certificates, licensures and institutes to provide you with wide-ranging choice in elective credit. The variety of these options will enable you to tailor your learning experiences to specific areas of literacy education (e.g., reading, writing, children's literature or book arts).

24 Required Core Credits

- GED 8030 - Essentials in Literacy and Learning
- GED 8031 - New Literacies in the 21st Century
- GED 8032 - Rethinking Literacy Across the Disciplines
- GED 8034 - Literacy Leadership and Coaching
- GED 8035 - Literacy Capstone - Thinking, Researching, Writing
- GED 8036 - Educational Policy and Literacy Practice
- GED 8040 - Critical Literacy
- GED 8495 - Capstone

10 Elective Credits (selected by the student)

Elective coursework in this degree may be acquired through graduate language arts courses:

- K-12 Reading License
- Literacy Certificate
- Writing Certificate
- Children's Literature Certificate
- A combination of courses from the above certificates and license
- Other elective credit options

MALED Application Requirements

- Completed application (online at www.hamline.edu/education/admission/apply\_online\_instructions.html)

- Written essay: The Admission Committee uses this essay to learn about your plans for the Master of Arts in Literacy Education program and your ability to think and write. Please answer the following questions:
  - a. Why do you want to pursue the Master of Arts in Literacy Education?
  - b. How will the MALED meet your personal and/or professional goals?
  - c. What outcomes do you expect will result from participation in the MALED at Hamline University?
- Official undergraduate degree transcript sent directly from the institution to Graduate Admission or in a sealed, signed envelope. You do not need to supply transcripts for courses taken at Hamline University.
- Two letters of recommendation.

Transfer of credit guidelines

At least half of the elective credits (five semester credits) must be completed through Hamline University. Up to five semester credits of graduate work from another accredited institution completed prior to admission into the MA program may be used towards elective credits, provided the following transfer criteria are met:

- Official transcript clearly states course is at graduate level.
- Course was completed within 7 years prior to admission.
- Applicant received a letter grade of B- or above.

Up to 10 semester credits completed at Hamline prior to admission can be transferred into the MALED program as elective credits. If you have already earned a Hamline certificate or license, you may bring in 10 semester credits to fulfill the elective requirement.

Transfer of credit for course work completed prior to degree program admission occurs after successful completion of GED 8030: Essentials in Literacy and Learning.

Faculty have K-12 experience and a commitment to helping you become a successful teacher. Learn hands-on applications in an integrated curriculum focusing on urban, multicultural issues. Five categories of licensure are available:

- Elementary Education K-6
- Secondary Education in the specialty areas of chemistry (9-12), communication arts and literature (5-12), life science (9-12), mathematics (5-12), physics (9-12), science (5-8), or social studies (5-12);

- Secondary Education (9-12) in the specialty areas of chemistry, life science, or physics;
- K-12 in English as a second language (ESL), world languages and cultures (German or Spanish), health 5-12/physical education K-12, or theater arts and dance.

Field placements are integrated throughout the program so you practice what you learn in your courses as you progress toward full-time student teaching. You will develop the skills, content, and confidence to be a highly qualified teaching professional. Graduate education classes typically meet once a week in the evening. You may attend the program on a full-time or part-time basis, according to your preferred pace of study.

For program course requirements, refer to the MAT website or contact a staff advisor. After successfully completing the courses listed in an individually-developed course planner, students apply for acceptance to student teaching. Upon successful completion of the license requirements, students are recommended for state licensure. Students have seven years to complete their MAT degree. Students must maintain a 3.0 overall GPA and earn B- or higher in all licensure courses. Refer to the student handbook for program details and requirements.

ESL 7502 - Language and Society

Focus on the varieties of language and how they reflect social patterns. Explore the importance of language in all our interactions. Examine the social nature of language, and how language reflects social situations. Study the issues of language and social class, ethnic group, and gender, as well as topics in language and nationality, language and geography, and the social nature of writing. Learn to pay particular attention to the social-linguistic situations of second language learners (i.e., those who are not native speakers of a socially dominant language or dialect) as well as the sociolinguistics of language in the classroom.

Target audience: language arts, modern language, and ESL teachers, K-adult.

Credits: 4 credits

ESL 7519 - Linguistics for Language Teachers

Teachers Study language in all its complexity! This is a broad, applied introduction to the study of language including morphology (word forms), syntax (sentence structure), semantics (meaning), and phonetics/phonology (pronunciation), as well as the social and cognitive dimensions of language. Study the application of linguistic skills to language instruction and the use of technology in teaching, in addition to an introduction to graduate-level research and Internet skills in a two-hour in-class library orientation.

Target audience: teachers K-12.

ESL 7610 - History of English

Have you wondered why the English language has such a bizarre spelling system, so many exceptions to its grammar rules, and the largest vocabulary of any modern world language? Discover the answers by studying the development and forms of the English language from Anglo-Saxon beginnings to present-day standard English and varieties of English. Understand the sociocultural and linguistic forces that cause language to undergo constant change.

Target audience: language arts and ESL teachers, K-12.

Credits: 1 credit

ESL 7631 - Introduction to the Adult ESL Learner: Developing Reading and Writing Skills

This course provides an introduction to second language acquisition theory, English as a Second Language (ESL) literacy development, and issues of acculturation for adult English language learners in all Adult Basic Education (ABE) classrooms. Effective ESL instruction for adults stems from understanding of the second language learning process as well as the cultural and political context for learning. This course provides an overview of current theory and practice in teaching reading and writing to adults at all proficiency levels. This course is intended for ESL instructors and ABE instructors in all content areas, where in many programs, nearly 50% of ABE learners have a first language other than English.

If you are new to the field of adult ESL and are planning to complete the Certificate for Teachers of Adult ESL, you must start with ESL 7631 or 7634.

ESL 7634 - Introduction to the Adult English Language Learner: Developing Oral Skills

This course covers the nature of oral communication. Gain an awareness of the form, meaning and use of spoken English and how to present language to learners most effectively. Learn about the principles of teaching listening and speaking, use of authentic materials, and the assessment of oral proficiency and listening comprehension. Develop a basic understanding of the sound system of English: phonetics, stress, rhythm and intonation. Learn strategies for teaching pronunciation. Emphasis is put on developing classroom practices that maximize student participation.

Target audience: ESL teachers of adult learners.

Credits: 2 credits

ESL 7636 - Course Design for Adult ESL Classes

How can ESL teachers develop courses to meet a variety of language and learning needs?

ESL students come to programs for a variety of reasons: some need English for the workplace; some need survival English; others may want to study in a community college or university. Explore the principles of needs assessment and course design, and learn the tools to develop courses which are tailored to the language and learning needs of your students. Create curricula and materials for use in your own program.

www.hamline.edu/education/online.

Target audience: ESL teachers of adult learners.

Credits: 2 credits

Note: This course is required for completion of the Adult ESL Certificate.

ESL 7638 - Assessment of the Adult English Language Learner

This course addresses the entrance and exit criteria for adult education and ESL programs and provides guidance on how to evaluate student progress. The politics of testing and assessment are explored as well. Participants learn how to conduct valid and reliable formal and informal assessments of adult learners, and they develop authentic assessment tools for academic and workplace settings.

ABE certificate seekers register for EDUC 7636 and Adult ESL certificate seekers register for ESL 7638.
Target audience: ESL teachers of adult learners.

ESL 7650 - Basics of Modern English

An overview of English grammar designed for teachers of ESL grades K-12. Develop an understanding of the basics of English grammar both descriptively and pedagogically, particularly in areas that cause difficulties for learners of English as a Second Language. Improve your skills at error analysis and your ability to effectively incorporate grammar instruction into your classroom in a way that is meaningful and interesting to your learners. NOTE: Should be taken after or concurrently with a linguistics course.
Target audience: ESL teachers, current or prospective.
Credits: 4 credits

ESL 7660 - Second Language Acquisition

How do students learn a second language? Examine the factors that affect how languages are learned—age, environment, academic background, motivation, and developmental processes. Emphasis will be placed on understanding the language learning process and being able to communicate this process to administrators, teachers, and parents. Current research issues will also be addressed, with opportunities for teachers to apply theory to practice.
Target audience: ESL and bilingual/bicultural education teachers K-12.
Credits: 3 credits

ESL 7753 - Testing & Evaluation of English Language Learners

Examine the complex issues of assessment, testing, and evaluation of ESL students, in both ESL and mainstream classrooms. Develop an understanding of the policies, procedures and instruments used in assessing English language proficiency and the academic competency of ESL students. Learn how to use appropriate assessment to improve student performance and how to advocate for students in testing situations.
Target audience: teachers K-12.
Credits: 2 credits

ESL 7755 - Development of Literacy Skills

Literacy development is crucial for the academic success of ELLs.
Expand your understanding of emergent literacy and gain a working knowledge of literacy development for second language learners. Explore best practices for vocabulary development, comprehension strategy instruction, and questioning. Learn how to develop standards-based lessons for all stages of reading. Target audience: educators K-12.

For online section: Please register one week prior to course start date to ensure receipt of any information that may be sent. Online login and course information at www.hamline.edu/education/online.
Target audience: teachers K-12.

ESL 7776 - ESL Methods

Explore the intersection of theory and practice! Examine historical and contemporary methods for teaching language. Learn to develop lessons that focus on reading, writing, listening, speaking, grammar and vocabulary for a variety of ages, proficiency levels and educational contexts. Learn to write language and content objectives and align standards, objectives, assessment, and activities to ensure purposeful instruction. This course also presents cultural theory and development.
Target audience: persons seeking ESL licensure.
Credits: 4 credits
Notes: NOTE: Methods should be taken at the end of the licensure course sequence.

ESL 7790 - Advanced Practicum

Credits: (variable credits)

ESL 8010 - Phonetics and Phonology

Help English language learners attain intelligible pronunciation. This course addresses areas of phonetics and phonology that ESL professionals need to know in order to assess and respond to learner needs. Issues of age, motivation, and context as they relate to pronunciation are discussed. Ideas for integrating pronunciation instruction into various curricula are included as well. The needs of both children and adults are addressed.

ESL 8020 - Advanced Linguistic Analysis

Using naturally occurring linguistic data from the first languages that ESL practitioners encounter in Minnesota (e.g. Spanish, Hmong and Somali), this course will provide ESL practitioners with a solid understanding of topics in syntax, semantics and pragmatics. The emphasis will be on recognizing pattern and structure (including linguistic universals) and relating this knowledge to the language learning needs of ESL students.
Credits: 3 credits

ESL 8100 - Introduction to Applied Linguistics

This course provides a broad, applied introduction to the study of language including morphology (word forms), syntax (sentence structure), semantics (meaning), phonetics and phonology (the sounds of language). The application of linguistic analysis skills to language instruction is addressed.

Graduate-level research skills are addressed in the context of writing the advance to candidacy paper.
Credits: 4 credits

ESL 8101 - Exploring Second Language Acquisition

This course addresses the knowledge base of first and second language acquisition, including theories of language learning and the factors of individual learning. Learner language and instructor-student interaction are examined as are error correction techniques. Candidates learn to identify the range of research carried out in SLA through reading research and writing critical evaluations of research on their topics of interest.
Credits: 4 credits

ESL 8102 - Exploring Contexts for Language Teaching and Learning

This course focuses on English as a lingua franca and the development of World Englishes in the increasingly globalized world of the 21st century. Candidates examine the world-wide scope of English use and teaching as well as the hegemonic position of English in the world today.
Credits: 2 credits

ESL 8103 - Exploring Language: Grammar and Discourse

In this course candidates explore both sentence and discourse levels of English grammar by applying various analytic approaches, including systemic functional grammar. They complete projects involving text analysis and they explore grammar pedagogy. The aim of the course is to give candidates the tools to analyze language their students encounter in order to integrate grammar instruction appropriately.

ESL 8104 - Applied Phonetics and Phonology

This course addresses areas of phonetics and phonology that English teaching professionals need to know in order to assess and respond to learner needs. Issues of intelligibility, age, motivation, advocacy and context as they relate to pronunciation are discussed. Ideas for integrating pronunciation instruction into various curricula are included as well.

ESL 8105 - English Teaching Practices

This course presents teaching methodologies suitable for a variety of teaching contexts that are based on language acquisition research and best practices in reflective teaching. Principles of planning activities and lessons using authentic materials, guiding language acquisition through interactive activities, and assessing learning are included. Teaching to promote success with 21st century skills is emphasized. Candidates apply these practices in their teaching contexts through action research, exploratory practice, or supervised teaching. They identify a critical question of personal significance for their culminating professional project.

Credits: 4 credits

ESL 8106 - Teaching Academic Discourse

This course focuses on the analysis of spoken and written discourses in a range of academic and professional registers. The application of this knowledge for teaching reading and writing for academic and professional purposes is included as well. Candidates continue to apply these practices in their teaching contexts through action research, exploratory practice, or supervised teaching.

ESL 8107 - Course Design and Assessment

In this course, candidates acquire tools for developing courses tailored to the language and learning needs of their students. The course also covers language assessment theory and practice. Candidates learn how to conduct valid and reliable formal and informal assessments, and develop authentic assessment tools for academic and workplace settings.

ESL 8108 - Developing a Culminating Professional Project

In this course, students complete the final project addressing the critical question that they identified. The final project can be a review of the literature, materials development, classroom-based research, a text analysis or some other kind of professional project related to language or culture. The project should be of significant personal interest and of publishable quality.

ESL 8490 - Research Methodology

This course examines the ideological and theoretical underpinnings of research in second language pedagogy and learning. In conjunction with reviewing quantitative and qualitative research methods, students formulate the research question for their capstone projects, design the methodology, and write the literature review.
Credits: 4 credits

ESL 8495 - Capstone

Prerequisite: Successful completion of ESL 8490
Credits: 4 credits

GED 0050 - Student Teaching Seminar

This is the required weekly seminar that accompanies the classroom student teaching experience. It is offered for no credit. Refer to the course description for the student teaching experience.
Prerequisite: Formal acceptance in the MAT teacher education program; successful completion of content area and education course requirements; and, successful presentation and evaluation of your Professional Teaching Portfolio.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 7801 - Introduction to MAT

An orientation course is required prior to or during the first semester of a student's program in order to facilitate the MAT student's progress through the complexities of the licensure coursework and the gateways toward state licensure. The course will cover material such as the conceptual framework of the program, the requirements of the licensure coursework, and the gateways which have been established for monitoring successful progress through the program.

GED 7815 - Schools and Society

This course will explore the profession of teaching from historical, philosophical and sociological viewpoints. Students will develop a personal philosophy of education and conduct research on current topics in the field. This course includes three days of school tours and a 30-hour field experience.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in GED 7825 is recommended.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 7825 - Educational Psychology

This course surveys theories of learning, motivation and intelligence; theories of cognitive, social, and emotional development; and, influences of social and cultural background on development and learning. Students will learn about assessment and evaluation and the theoretical bases for instructional models.

GED 7835 - Teaching Art in the Elementary School K-6

Select and implement developmentally appropriate materials and activities for the teaching of art in the elementary classroom. Overview of basic concepts and skills in art; group activities and/or classroom involvement with elementary school children. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: GED 7867 Theory to Practice or concurrent enrollment, with grade of B- or higher. Concurrent enrollment in GED 7836, Teaching Music in the Elementary School; GED 7837, Teaching Health in the Elementary School; and, GED 7838, Teaching Physical Education in the Elementary School, is recommended.

Credits: 1 credit

GED 7836 - Teaching Music in the Elementary School K-6

Select and implement developmentally appropriate materials and activities for the teaching of music in the elementary classroom. Overview of basic concepts and skills in music; group activities and/or classroom involvement with elementary school children. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: GED 7867 Theory to Practice or concurrent enrollment, with grade of B- or higher. Concurrent enrollment in GED 7835, Teaching Art in the Elementary School; GED 7837, Teaching Health in the Elementary School; and GED 7838, Teaching Physical Education in the Elementary School, is recommended.

Credits: 1 credit

GED 7837 - Teaching Health in the Elementary School K-6

Select and implement developmentally appropriate materials and activities for the teaching of health in the elementary classroom. Overview of basic concepts and skills in health; group activities and/or classroom involvement with elementary school children. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: GED 7867 Theory to Practice or concurrent enrollment, with grade of B- or higher. Concurrent enrollment in GED 7835, Teaching Art in the Elementary School; GED 7836, Teaching Music in the Elementary School; and GED 7838, Teaching Physical Education in the Elementary School, is recommended.

Credits: 1 credit

GED 7838 - Teaching Physical Education in the Elementary School K-6

Select and implement developmentally appropriate materials and activities for the teaching of physical education in the elementary classroom. Overview of basic concepts and skills in physical education; group activities and/or classroom involvement with elementary school children. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: GED 7867 Theory to Practice or concurrent enrollment, with grade of B- or higher. Concurrent enrollment in GED 7835, Teaching Art in the Elementary School; GED 7836, Teaching Music in the Elementary School; and GED 7837, Teaching Health in the Elementary School, is recommended.

GED 7840 - Teaching Social Studies in the Elementary School K-6

Practice teaching methods specific to the teaching of social studies. Develop an understanding of social studies and the purposes they serve. Exploration of issues in curriculum development. Survey methods of teaching; planning for teaching; study and research skills in social studies; professional and community resources for the social studies teacher; and current trends in social studies. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.
Credits: 4 credits

GED 7846 - Teaching Literacy in the Elementary School, Part I

This two part course focuses on literacy practices for the elementary reader and writer in a 21st century environment. Part one focuses on knowledge of literacy practices. Part two focuses on systems used in the school and classroom to create literate environments that foster reading and writing. Participants will observe, analyze, engage, and co-teach in the elementary classroom. Thirty focused clinical experience hours are required between the two courses.
Corequisite: This course is required to be taken in the same term with the 2 credit online course GED 7847: Teaching Literacy in the Elementary School K-6, Part II.
Prerequisite: GED 7815, GED 7825, GED 7867
Credits: 4 credits

GED 7847 - Teaching Literacy in the Elementary School, Part II

This two part course focuses on literacy practices for the elementary reader and writer in a 21st century environment. Part one focuses on knowledge of literacy practices. Part two focuses on systems used in the school and classroom to create literate environments that foster reading and writing. Participants will observe, analyze, engage, and co-teach in the elementary classroom. Thirty focused clinical experience hours are required between the two courses.
Corequisite: This course is required to be taken in the same term with the 2 credit online course GED 7846: Teaching Literacy in the Elementary School K-6, Part I.
Prerequisite: GED 7815, GED 7825, GED 7867
Credits: 2 credits

GED 7851 - Teaching Science in the Elementary School

Develop understandings and pedagogical competencies necessary to implement effective science curriculum in the elementary classroom. Implement methods that promote student investigation, discussion, and assessment models that meet the diverse learning needs of elementary students.
This is a graduate level class with graduate level expectations.
Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.
Credits: 4 credits

GED 7852 - Teaching Math in the Elementary School

Develop understandings and pedagogical competencies necessary to implement effective math curriculum in the elementary classroom. Implement methods that promote student investigation, discussion, and assessment models that meet the diverse learning needs of elementary students.

This is a graduate level class with graduate level expectations.
Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.
Credits: 6 credits

GED 7862 - Education and Cultural Diversity

This course will explore the impact of diversity in the classroom: race/ethnicity, class, gender, language, sexual orientation, and disability and will explore nature, causes, and effects of prejudice. Approved by MN Department of Education as satisfying the Education 521 human relations requirement.
Credits: 4 credits

GED 7867 - Theory to Practice

This course will require students to analyze the structure and methods of managing learning environments, design developmentally appropriate learning opportunities that incorporate different approaches to learning, learning styles, and multiple intelligences, and practice strategies for culturally mediated instruction and uses of technology to facilitate and enhance learning. This course has a 15-hour field placement.
Credits: 4 credits

GED 7870 - Teaching English in the Middle and High School 5-12

Goals: Facilitate acquisition of knowledge and the development of skills essential in assessing and teaching literacy skills in 5-12 school classrooms.
Content: This course is designed to teach potential middle and secondary school teachers how to connect reading strategies to content information; assist struggling readers; and provide information on instructional techniques, integrated learning models, and young adult literature that connects with a range of content areas. This course has been approved and designed to meet the Minnesota Department of Education Literacy standards for middle and secondary teachers.
Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.
Credits: 4 credits

GED 7871 - Teaching Literacy in the Middle and Secondary School 5-12

Address the needs of middle- and secondary-level students as they make the transition from emergent to fluent readers. Gain an expanded definition of literacy that incorporates reading, writing, and speaking as tools for learning. Form the basis for instructional strategies designed to improve students' appreciation for skills of literacy in the learning process. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.
Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7815, Schools and Society. Completion of GED 7825, Educational Psychology.

Completion of Theory to Practice. GED 7862, Education and Cultural Diversity is recommended.

GED 7872 - Exceptionality

This course will survey areas of exceptionality such as learning disabilities, physical and mental disabilities, emotional and behavior disorders, and giftedness, and consider their impact on classroom learning. The course will address educational practices for responding to exceptional students' needs. The course includes a 4-hour field placement.

GED 7873 - Teaching Social Studies in the Middle and Secondary School 5-12

Practice teaching methods specific to the teaching of social studies. Develop an understanding of social studies and the purposes they serve. Exploration of issues in curriculum development. Survey methods of teaching; planning for teaching; study and research skills for the social studies; professional and community resources for the social studies teacher; and current trends in social studies. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 7874 - Teaching Science in the Middle and Secondary School 5-12

Demonstrate strategies for teaching science at the secondary level. Incorporate national, state, and local goals for teaching science. Overview processes of science as a discipline; cognitive psychology, and science teaching; as well as models for teaching science and the use of assessment tools and models. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 7875 - Teaching in the Secondary School

This course has a 30-hour field placement.

Practice in planning, using and assessing effective teaching techniques across disciplines. Use technology to facilitate and enhance teaching and assessment. Develop feedback and reflection skills. Discuss capstone topics. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

This course is recommended the semester prior to student teaching.

Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 7876 - Teaching in the Middle School

This course has a 30-hour field placement.

This course provides background in philosophy and organization of the middle school while gaining practice in the planning, assessing, and applying of effective interdisciplinary teaching techniques across disciplines. Will target use of technology to facilitate and enhance teaching and assessment. Will develop feedback and reflection skills. This is a graduate level course with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisites: Completion of GED 7815: Schools and Society; GED 7825: Educational Psychology; and GED 7867: Theory to Practice

Credits: 4 credits

GED 7880 - Teaching Math in the Middle and Secondary School 5-12

Gain the knowledge and competencies necessary to implement effective teaching strategies that support student investigation, discussion, and reasoning related to mathematical understandings for the secondary and middle school levels. This course addresses processes of inquiry and problem solving in mathematics; models of effective mathematics teaching; experiences related to planning and delivering curriculum, and assessments which are aligned with national and state standards; selection and use of appropriate instructional tools; and, support for students with diverse learning needs. This is a graduate level class with graduate level expectations.

Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 7881 - Teaching World Languages K-12

You will become familiar with basic teaching responsibilities and classroom management as well as theoretical and practical issues relevant to foreign language learning. You will be encouraged to continually analyze your assumptions about teaching effectiveness through journal writing, personal experience in the classroom, and critical readings of current classroom research. Through an understanding of past and current language acquisition and learning theory, you should be able to present arguments for the assumptions of teaching methods, as well as describe their contributions. You will also gain a solid foundation in practical teaching techniques, as well as evaluate long-term course objectives and work with curriculum based on learner needs and successful completion of the Minnesota Graduation Standards for K-12.

Prerequisite: Completion of GED 7867, Theory to Practice with grade of B- or higher.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 7882 - Teaching Theatre & Dance K-12

Goals: To prepare the prospective teacher seeking a license in theatre/dance for the professional work.

Content: Techniques and content ideas for addressing the State of Minnesota Rules Chapter 8710.4300.subpart 3, curriculum and season planning considerations for the teacher, methods of evaluation creative work in an academic setting, best practices for the drama classroom, portfolio development, and the uses of drama techniques in teaching other content areas.

Taught: By arrangement. This is a tutorial class that involves both online learning and seminar sessions.

Prerequisites: GED 7815 and GED 7825.

GED 7885 - Elementary Student Teaching K-6

Elementary student teaching provides preservice educators with experiences to connect theory and practice in the context of a K-12 classroom; instructional planning; and implementation in an assigned learning environment. Preservice teachers' responsibilities include; longterm planning, implementation of an integrated curriculum, the facilitation of small- and large-group learning, and the development of assessment systems that support the Minnesota graduation standards for K-12 students.

Open only to preservice teachers who have adequate preparation in subject matter; have demonstrated proficiency with regard to the program and Minnesota's Standards for Effective Practice for Beginning Teachers; have met all program requirements; and, have evidenced fitness for entering the teaching profession. This is graduate level student teaching with graduate level exceptions.

Prerequisite: Formal acceptance in the MAT teacher education program; successful completion of content area and education course requirements; and, successful presentation and evaluation of your Professional Teaching Portfolio.

Requirements: Attendance at weekly seminar is required (no credit). Refer to course description for Student Teaching Seminar.

Credits: 6 credits

Note: Students must attend a student teaching intake session, which takes place in the fall semester. Contact your advisor or the Office of Clinical Experience, for scheduling information.

GED 7894 - Secondary Student Teaching 9-12

Secondary student teaching provides the teacher-candidate the experiences to connect theory and practice in the context of 9 - 12 classrooms through instructional planning and implementation in an assigned learning environment. The teacher-candidate's responsibilities include: long-term planning; implementation of an integrated curriculum; the facilitation of small- and large-group learning environments; and the development of assessment systems that support the Minnesota graduation standards for K - 12 students.

Requirements: This course is only open to teacher-candidates who have adequate preparation in licensure areas; have demonstrated proficiency in Minnesota's Standards for Effective Practice for Beginning Teachers (SEPBTs); have received formal approval by the MAT faculty to student teach; have met all MAT program requirements; and have demonstrated the dispositions, knowledge, and skills to enter the teaching profession. Concurrent registration at GED 0050: Student Teaching Seminar each week is also required.

Note: Teacher-candidates must attend a student-teaching intake session, which takes place in the fall semester.

Contact your advisor or the Placement Office for scheduling information.

GED 7895 - Secondary Student Teaching 5-12

Secondary student teaching provides the teacher-candidate the experiences to connect theory and practice in the context of 5 - 12 classrooms through instructional planning and implementation in an assigned learning environment. The teacher-candidate's responsibilities include: long-term planning; implementation of an integrated curriculum; the facilitation of small- and large-group learning environments; and the development of assessment systems that support the Minnesota graduation standards for K - 12 students.

Requirements: This course is only open to teacher-candidates who have adequate preparation in licensure areas; have demonstrated proficiency in Minnesota's Standards for Effective Practice for Beginning Teachers (SEPBTs); have received formal approval by the MAT faculty to student teach; have met all MAT program requirements; and have demonstrated the dispositions, knowledge, and skills to enter the teaching profession. ### GED 8020 - Explorations: Reflection, Community Building, and Knowledge

Participants increase their reflection skills through dialogue, writing, and examination of their personal beliefs about teaching and learning. They learn about and practice building community with class colleagues and in their workplaces. They explore how knowledge is constructed individually and socially.

GED 8021 - Designing Effective Learning Environments

In the context of individual values and beliefs and the complexity of an increasingly diverse society, providing effective learning environments for all students is a continual and complex challenge. Participants take up this challenge by considering a variety of research-based approaches for crafting inclusive, active, and engaging learning environments. These include pedagogically sound technology integration, differentiated instruction, and understanding by design.

GED 8022 - Action Research: Practice and Application

Participants design an action research project. In the process, they learn to value their own voices and the questions they generate about their professional practice. Engaging in action research enables participants to use structured inquiry as a strategy for enhancing learning environments.

GED 8023 - Capstone Practicum

As members of an inquiry community, participants challenge contemporary notions of "research." Each participant explores and owns a critical question and drafts a capstone proposal. Participants learn to design and implement an extended structured inquiry.

GED 8024 - Educating for Equity and Social Justice

This community critically examines education through an equity and social justice lens. Using critical cultural studies and multicultural education as theoretical frameworks, participants collaboratively investigate ways in which racism, sexism, classism, heterosexism, ageism, and other forms of discrimination permeate educational policy and practice. Participants consider what individuals and communities can do to ensure that all students have equitable educational opportunities.

GED 8025 A - Public Policy: Design and Action

Policy decisions or actions present opportunities for teachers-leaders to use a policy cycle to improve teaching and learning. Participants collect data, analyze problems, and design policy initiatives, which may be at the classroom, department, school, district, state, or federal level.

Credits: 2 credits

Note: Students must register for both 2-credit sections of 8025 at the same time.

GED 8025 B - Public Policy: Design and Action

This course is a continuation of GED 8025 A Public Policy. Credits: 2 credits

Note: Students must register for both two-credit sections of 8025 at the same time.

GED 8030 - Essentials in Literacy and Learning

Examine the relationship between literacy theories and classroom practice. Expand the definition of literacy as it relates to self, students and society. Learn about and practice building community with colleagues in a literacy environment.

GED 8031 - New Literacies in the 21st Century

Explore the variety of different text types that can be used to teach 21st century students. Examine visual literacies and methods for teaching reading and writing with multimedia and new literacies. Learn an array of strategies intended to increase new literacy practices in the classroom.

GED 8032 - Rethinking Literacy Across the Disciplines

Gain an overview of the reading process based on current theory and research. Practice and incorporate instructional methods for teaching and promoting literacy across the disciplines. Learn how to expand language specific to academic subjects and explore assessment tools that strengthen student learning with diverse texts.

GED 8034 - Literacy Leadership and Coaching

Explore the role of literacy leaders and literacy coaches in schools. Learn a wide range of leadership skills through the study of adult learning, professional development and research-based coaching practices. Examine methods for building and maintaining relationships with colleagues and the school community.

Credits: 3 credits

GED 8035 - Literacy Capstone - Thinking, Researching, Writing

Become a teacher researcher by learning to design and implement structured inquiry in literacy education. Develop a critical question and draft a capstone proposal. Expand an understanding of the research process, methodology and structure of the capstone.

Credits: 3 credits

GED 8036 - Educational Policy and Literacy Practice

Develop an understanding of educational policy at the classroom, department, school, district, state or federal level. Study literacy reform efforts through inquiry, reflection and analysis. Learn how to influence policy and become an agent of change.

GED 8040 - Critical Literacy

Deepen understanding of critical literacy by actively questioning the stance found within, behind, and among texts. Learn to guide students to ask questions about representation, marginalization, power and benefit. Encourage critical awareness through personal and professional transformation.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 8041 - Understanding Language and Language Learners

English learners (ELs) are increasing in numbers in our K-12 schools, with linguistic and cultural needs that are new to many teachers. This course will introduce the principles of language and culture that teachers need to know when working with ELs. Questions addressed will include: What is the nature of language? How is a second language learned? What is the relationship between language, culture, and the language learner?

Requirements: Completion of student teaching and admission to the MAT program.

GED 8042 - Academic Language for English Learners

This course will address best practices in the instruction of ELs. Questions this course will address are: How can language be learned in a content classroom? How do teachers make instruction and assessment accessible? Why is it important to teach academic language and how is it done?

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8041

GED 8043 - Supporting and Advocating for English Learners

This course is designed for mainstream teachers. The premise of the course is to show teachers ways to advocate for English Language Learners in the classroom, in the school, and in the community. It also provides ways to show ELLs how to speak up for themselves, their families, and their communities.

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8041 and GED 8042

GED 8051 - Literacy Connections in the Classroom

This course builds upon the foundational and content knowledge from teachers' pre-service literacy coursework and scaffolds literacy learning gained from MAT clinical and student teaching experiences. The content and course activities will provide an emphasis on literacy instruction that will prepare teachers to become successful practitioners in today's classrooms.

Requirements: Completion of student teaching and admission to the MAT program.

GED 8052 - Summer Literacy Institute

This is one of three courses in the new Literacy Induction Series specifically designed for MAT license completers. Features national literacy leaders and also break-out sessions presented by local practitioners.

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8051 is required to register for this course.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8053 - Literacy Connections II

Building on the learning opportunities in Literacy Connections in the Classroom and students' Summer Literacy Institute experiences.

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8051, GED 8091, GED 8052, and GED 8092 is required to register for this course.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8061 - Nature of Science and Historical Perspectives

Fundamental to effective science teaching is a deep understanding of science and its development over time.

The scientific enterprise will be explored through cultural, historical, and social perspectives.

Requirements: Completion of student teaching and admission to the MAT program.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8062 - Science Teaching and Learning

Science Teaching and Learning is a practitioner's course where science-specific instructional strategies will be actively investigated, including the classroom environment, impact of state and national standards, inquiry as process and pedagogy, effective questioning, misconceptions and gaps in understanding, use of science notebook/journals, curriculum design, assessment models, state science testing, science literacy, and cultural perspectives.

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8061 is required to register for this course.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8063 - Rivers Institute

The field-based course addresses the natural overlaps between science processes, content, and the skills of literacy. Our natural affinity to water makes rivers and watersheds a useful and familiar context for teaching and learning.

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8061 and GED 8062 is required to register for this course.

GED 8071 - Race and Culture in Today's Classroom

This course will explore how race and culture impact teacher instruction and student learning. You will look at a little talked about theory: White Racial Frame and how this frame impacts the effort and excellence in urban and urban/like classrooms. Participants will review strategies and techniques to reach all students and not just those that may look, dress, talk or act like a participant. When educators began to focus on culturally proficient/responsive instruction all students benefit: poor students, middle class students, rich students, students of color, immigrant students, language students, and students with disabilities. All stakeholders become winners: students, teachers, parents, schools, and districts.

Requirements: Completion of student teaching and admission to the MAT program.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8072 - Intercultural Competency and Dimensions of Diversity

This course will offer teachers an in-depth analysis of who they are culturally and identify at least one identity of intersectionality and how to improve their practice as it relates to meeting the needs of diverse learners in the 21st century.

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8071 is required to register for this course.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8073 - Linking Community to Classroom: Building on Learner Capital

Learning can be meaningful, engaging, and permanent when it builds upon the social and cultural capital learners bring to the classroom. Build upon the rich and diverse out-of-school experiences of learners from diverse backgrounds and develop ways to acknowledge and integrate those experiences into your teaching through readings, lesson plan development, reflection, and interaction with families and communities.

Requirements: Successful completion of GED 8071 and GED 8072 is required to register for this course.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8495 - Capstone

The capstone project is the culmination of an MA student's work at Hamline University. It is generally an applied research project conducted in the student's school or workplace. The student works closely with an administrative advisor to construct the research, carry out the research, and complete the project. The capstone committee offers additional support throughout the process. Registration requires advisor and committee members' signatures. Capstone registration materials, timelines, and formatting guidelines are found in the Capstone Completion Guide and Capstone Formatting Guide, which are available online. If you have questions, please contact the Advanced Degrees Department program administrator.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of GED 8023 or GED 8035 (Literacy Education).

GED 8501 - The Learning Organization

This course examines the social foundations of United States education from comparative and historical perspectives with attention to future trends. The course provides ample opportunities for participants to articulate and understand the presuppositions and suppositions (foundations) of their individual philosophy, knowledge base, valuation of education, schooling, the relationship between teachers and learner, and between skills and knowledge.

GED 8502 - Educational Foundations

This overview course examines how schools, universities, and other formal organizations built around learning have evolved, particularly in the United States. Learners and learning processes, teachers and teaching processes, and leaders and leading processes will be discussed in the context of education as a discipline.

GED 8504 - Educational Organizations

This course examines organizations that educate: their structures and processes, cultures, management of change processes, productivity and effectiveness issues, their place in society, and organizational development techniques and theories. Participants will explore the implications of social, cultural, and racial demographic changes on historically Eurocentric thinking about organizations. This exploration offers opportunities to rethink these social constructions.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8505 - Leadership

This course focuses on understanding and analyzing these aspects of leadership: theories, with special attention to constructivist leadership; complexities of leading in an interdependent world; leader-follower relationships; change and transition; and communication and decision-making processes. Participants will apply their understanding and analysis to personal, professional, and organizational settings.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8507 A - Frameworks for Inquiry

The major aim of this course is to develop and extend critical habits of mind via inquiry. It surveys the qualitative and quantitative research paradigms. Both paradigms require habits of mind that include: making sense of competing paradigms; framing research questions; respecting data over prejudices; and judging whether conclusions are supported by evidence. This course continues the study of research designs and methods from both paradigms.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 8507 B - Frameworks for Inquiry

The major aim of this course is to develop and extend critical habits of mind via inquiry. It surveys the qualitative and quantitative research paradigms. Both paradigms require habits of mind that include: making sense of competing paradigms; framing research questions; respecting data over prejudices; and judging whether conclusions are supported by evidence. This course continues the study of research designs and methods from both paradigms.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 8508 - Advanced Inquiry

This course extends the knowledge and activities of Frameworks for Inquiry with attention to the intersection of the two paradigms and multimethod designs. Participants critique current research practices, analyze research findings related to current educational issues, and analyze and evaluate the implications of those findings. Participants also draft a dissertation prospectus, which is the initial stage of dissertation work.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8513 - Paideia Seminar: Knowledge Construction

Participants in the seminar explore and think critically about ideas and practices related one EdD theme: Constructivism/Constructing Knowledge. Exploration is done through a set of guiding questions and active participation in a variety of learning mediums.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 8514 - Doctoral Writing Seminar

Participants focus in improving aspects of writing assignments from the 1st-semester courses. This is done through assessments, analysis of strong and weak models of doctoral-academic writing, focused revision, self-reflection, and goal setting to improve writing for the doctoral course work and the dissertation.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 8515 - Paideia Seminar: Community Building

Participants in the seminar explore and thinking critically about ideas and practices related to one category of the professional education unit's shared vision: Building Community. Exploration is done through a set of guiding questions and active participation in a variety of learning mediums.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 8516 - Equity and Social Justice Policy

In addition to an overview of educational policy development, particular focus is placed on equity and social justice implications of educational policies at the local, state, national, and international levels. This includes the impact of the history of the U.S. civil rights and global human rights movements on educational policy. Public scholarship related to policy is examined. Participants engage in the design, development, and evaluation of policy related to educational policy issues. An underlying principle of the course is policy activism.

Credits: 4 credits

GED 8517 - Paideia Seminar: Inquiry and Reflection

Participants in the seminar explore and think critically about ideas and practices related to one category of the professional education unit's shared vision: Practice thought inquiry and reflection. Exploration is done through a set of guiding questions and active participation in a variety of learning mediums.

Credits: 2 credits

GED 8991 - Dissertation Credit I

This is the first of four 4-credit registrations for the dissertation. Working individually with a dissertation committee, the student develops a dissertation proposal and successfully presents it at a committee proposal meeting. Prerequisites: Successful completion of all required courses, written examinations, synthesis presentation, and portfolio.

Credits: 4 credits.

Note: Graded on a Pass/No Pass basis.

GED 8992 - Dissertation Credit II

This is the second of four dissertation courses. Following a successful proposal meeting in GED 8991, students continue to work with a dissertation committee to develop, implement, and write the dissertation.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of GED 8991, including the dissertation proposal meeting.

Credits: 4 credits.

Note: Graded on a Pass/No Pass basis.

GED 8993 - Dissertation Credit III

This is the third of four dissertation courses. Students continue to work with a dissertation committee to develop, implement, and write the dissertation.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of GED 8991 and 8992.

Credits: 4 credits. Graded on a Pass/No Pass basis.

GED 8994 - Dissertation Credit IV

This is the fourth and final dissertation course. Students continue to work with a dissertation committee to complete the dissertation. Completion of the dissertation, including the final meeting or defense, is the final requirement for the Doctorate in Education (EdD) degree.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of GED 8991, 8992, and 8993.

Credits: 4 credits.

GPA 8000 - Foundations in Public Administration

This course introduces students to the professional study of public administration. The course provides a historical overview of American public administration and each of its significant sub-fields, as well as an introduction to contemporary reform efforts, both within and outside the public sector. Students learn to integrate their own experiences with key concepts in public administration and to use these experiences and concepts to plan the rest of their master's programs.

GPA 8002 - Fundamentals of Nonprofit Management

This course provides an overview of the historical development of the nonprofit sector, an introduction to emerging issues and leadership challenges for the sector, and a close look at management issues unique to the nonprofit sector. The class also examines the missions, operations, and challenges of nonprofit organizations.

GPA 8010 - Professional Ethics

This course explores selected theories of ethics and fundamental principles of ethical management, with a focus on practical approaches to dealing with ethical dilemmas across the public, private, and nonprofit sectors.

GPA 8020 - Organizational Theory and Behavior

This course examines the concepts, analytical tools, and personal skills relevant to the study of behavior in organizations. The course uses simulations, case studies, and discussion. It explores planned organizational change, the relationship between accomplishing tasks and fulfilling a mission, and other crucial topics in organizational life.

GPA 8030 - Public Fiscal Management

This course analyzes government revenue and expenditure policies, with an emphasis on the Minnesota state budgetary process. Topics include principles of public fiscal management, tax and spending systems, revenue sources, intergovernmental relations, and the administrative and political aspects of fiscal policy.

GPA 8032 - Financial Management for Nonprofit Organizations

This course introduces concepts and techniques in financial management applicable to nonprofit organizations. The focus is on nonprofit accounting, the interpretation and analysis of nonprofit financial statements, data and procedures for operational forecasts and budgets, financial responsibility, and the duties of nonprofit boards.

GPA 8040 - Public Policy Analysis

This course evaluates a variety of approaches and models used to analyze the making of public policy by examining the assumptions and limitations of each model. Current policy issues are explored. Each student designs and completes a significant research project on a selected public policy issue.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8050 - Human Resource Management for Government

This course examines current case law, regulations, and trends that define and influence the personnel function. Topics include recruitment, selection, compensation, employee motivation, collective bargaining, organizational philosophies, and legislation and regulation.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8052 - Human Resource Management for Nonprofit Organizations

This course provides an overview of the human resources function, with emphasis on the unique issues facing nonprofit organizations. It examines challenges of recruitment, retention, compensation, and personnel policies. Special attention is given to the role of boards and other volunteers.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8061 - Administrative Law

This course has been designed to be user-friendly to the nonlawyer and has as its goal to acquaint students with the fundamental principles and concepts of administrative law. Taught from a public administration perspective, the course provides students the opportunity to explore the interplay between and among politics, democracy, and bureaucracy; to examine bureaucracy's relationship to the legislative branch of government and to the courts; to learn about the administrative process at the local, state, and federal levels; to focus on the regulatory aspects of administrative law with particular attention to controlling risks, solving problems, and managing compliance; and to take a look at some contemporary substantive issues through the lens of administrative law.

GPA 8062 - Law for Nonprofit Organizations

This course examines the legal history and frameworks of nonprofit organizations. Emphasis is placed on the laws relating to the incorporation and tax-exempt status of nonprofit organizations. The course includes an examination of how nonprofit organizations influence legislation and rule-making processes. Students look at issues of accountability for nonprofit organizations and analyze the differences between profit and nonprofit organizations.

GPA 8070 - Research Methods

This course is designed to enhance managers' applied research skills in both their quantitative valuations and qualitative evaluations of various issues that confront them in their roles as decision-makers. Topics include research purpose and design; literature reviews; survey and data collection; statistical hypothesis testing; and research-proposal development.

GPA 8082 - Volunteer Management

This course explores the theories and practices required to develop and implement effective volunteer management programs within nonprofits. Topics include planning to ensure the success of volunteer programs, outlining the steps of appropriate volunteer recruitment, creating effective personnel policies and procedures, orientation training, supervising and evaluating, and recognizing volunteers for their contributions. Some related topics covered: what is national service, the changing demographics of the community volunteer, and organizational responsibilities and liabilities with administering volunteer programs.

GPA 8100 - Communications and Marketing for Nonprofits

This course explores research and marketing techniques used by nonprofits. Examines the importance of long range strategic planning for nonprofit organizations' market development. The course involves students in exercises in brand development and management, audience targeting, development of key messages, and other components of effective communication.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8110 - Governance and Planning in Nonprofit Organizations

This course introduces the governance process in nonprofit organizations, including the composition, roles, and responsibilities of governing boards; the relationship between boards and staff; and the role of governing boards in planning. Examines strategies for analysis and intervention when governance structures are not serving organizational needs.

GPA 8120 - Labor Relations

This course offers a wide review of Labor Relations. The course assumes a general understanding of relationships between management and organized labor and other core graduate courses specifically organizational theory and human resource management. The instructional approach is in the survey form and will employ lecture, readings, guest speakers, student presentation, and case study to achieve its objectives. It is not intended to train students for specialized careers in labor relations in a single course, but to acquaint the student with the underlying values, systems, laws and procedures shaping Labor Relations and the pertinent topics affecting the workplace today.

GPA 8130 - Housing & Economic Policy

This course examines economic development theories and housing policies in the United States. Emphasis upon understanding how economic and housing markets operate and how national, state, and local governments can influence business investment and job development decisions and the construction and rehabilitation of housing for different populations. This course first provides an overview on how economic and housing markets function. The discussion will include discussion of basic principles of macro and microeconomics and then analysis of specific views of economic development, including export-base, core-periphery, and locational theories. The course then provides specific analysis and evaluation of the different policies and techniques governments have used to secure economic and housing goals. Among the techniques examined will be: tax incentives and TIFs, bonding, public subsidies, public/private partnerships, infrastructure development, and direct government investment in, or ownership of housing and economic development entities.

GPA 8201 - Public Dispute Resolution

This course is an introduction to the public policy formation and implementation process. Public organizations encounter many situations where negotiation skills and mediation training in a public context is useful. Neighborhood disputes, development issues or special interest concerns require public officials to negotiate and mediate between parties in order to reach consensus and resolution to different opinions and points of view. These skills are different than the typical policymaking and implementation training that most public officials are used to. In today's world of public participation and citizen awareness, negotiation and mediation skills are essential.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8221 - Public Negotiation Skills Building

This course is designed to give the student a working knowledge of the theory and practice of negotiations in various public sector settings. The course is structured to allow the student to spend considerable time in realistic role-play exercises and will cover employee to employee, labor and community interest group dispute resolution through the use of bargaining skills and tactics. Participants will be involved in team negotiations with other members of the class.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8222 - Public Mediation Skills Building

Conflict is not necessarily good or bad. Conflict can be dysfunctional, and it can be difficult and dangerous for personal, business, or institutional relationships. Conflict often requires a third party neutral to assist parties in resolving their disputes and in creating valuable and workable relationships after their disagreements. This course provides students with the basic skills to become a mediator, and it provides students with an understanding of common mediation principles and practices. Students will also learn how mediation fits into the broader area of Alternative Dispute Resolution.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8223 - Contemporary Social Policy Issues

This course is open to advanced master's level students. This course examines the historical context, theoretical arguments, and political controversies surrounding current and emerging social policy issues. Consideration is given to the impacts of changing social policies on vulnerable populations, the delivery of health and human services, and society at large.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8225 - Critical Issues in Public Administration

This course explores in-depth those changes that are likely to have the greatest impact on local government managers in today's environment. External factors such as changing demographics, rising citizens' expectations, and the evolving nature of federalism will be examined as context for how effective managers must now respond. Several important internal issues such as how to motivate the new work force, how to determine the costs and benefits of technology in service delivery, and governing body expectations for successful managers will also be covered.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8228 - Public Arbitration Skills Building

This course is designed to make students familiar and comfortable with arbitration as a dispute resolution process in the public sector. Students will have a chance to participate in several scripted arbitration proceedings that will give them knowledge of the legal requirements and tactical underpinnings of this common workplace process. Employees will be made aware of the State Statutes governing public employee disputes and will become familiar with both salary and discipline arbitration proceedings.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8230 - Municipal County Administration

This course is a survey of contemporary issues facing municipalities specifically in Minnesota and generally in the upper Midwest. The semester will explore the practicalities and politics of managing a municipal organization using a variety of current practitioners in the field. Areas of concentration will include: community roles and power structures, city council and staff relations, public safety and public works issues, land use and community development, employee relations, finance, legal authority and emerging issues of governance and the role of citizen participation. Students currently will find this class a good way to acquire a broad-based understanding of municipal operations and the complexities of this occupational field.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8234 - Civic Engagement

Fundamental to our democracy is the active involvement of citizens. Today we hear a lot of talk about civic engagement. But what is civic engagement? How do the public and nonprofit sector become models of citizen participation? This course will explore the discontents and the promises, introducing students to a new model of engaged democratic practice which is deeply political in an older sense of politics as engaging different interests and views in solving common problems and creating common things.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8235 - Strategic Planning & Decision Making in the Public Sector

The first half of the course is a survey of strategic planning, to include: organization of the planning process; the mission statement; analysis of environmental strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats (SWOT analysis); and identifying strategic issues or goals. We will also review the effectiveness of strategic planning in government. Students will examine strategic plans and work in teams on planning exercises. As strategic planning should lead to decision making in an organization, the second half of the course is on normative and behavioral decision making. Several normative models of decision making are introduced and contrasted with findings from psychological research and behavioral decision theory on how individuals and groups make decisions in practice. Research shows that people often do not think in the best way or make the best decisions to reach their own goals. Topics include utility theory, expert systems, Kohlberg's stages of moral thinking, and the effectiveness of individual versus group decision making. Psychological biases are shown to occur in probability estimation, hypothesis testing, preference reversals, framing effects, and risk avoidance.

GPA 8243 - Public Negotiation and Mediation

This course's focus is on mediation as an element of the negotiation process. It will concentrate on the role of the mediator as a neutral facilitator within the conflict resolution process. The course includes lectures, discussions, and mediation and negotiation exercises that give participants an opportunity to acquire essential skills and familiarize themselves with mediation and negotiation procedures. This course also explores major themes in negotiation theory and practice, including distributive versus integrative bargaining, personality styles, multi-party negotiation, and ethical issues.

GPA 8244 - Advanced Public Arbitration

This course's focus is on more complicated public arbitration cases. Particular emphasis will be placed on labor and management issues. Time is also devoted to the legal framework of public arbitration. This course will explain procedural and evidentiary issues and will address decision-making and writing awards.

GPA 8245 - Advanced Public Mediation

This course covers advanced public mediation techniques, strategies, and tactics. The course is designed to enhance the participant's basic mediation skills. Special emphasis will be given to intercultural disputes, improving communication skills, and option development techniques. The course will also focus on the facilitative and evaluative approaches to public mediation. Participants in the class will be involved in numerous exercises and will have opportunities to experience co-mediation in a public arena.

GPA 8250 - Legislative Practicum

An in-depth exploration of how the state legislative processes operates and how knowledge of the law-making process is critical to public policy management and advocacy. The course will employ reading, discussion, guest presenters, on-site visits, and a project that requires students to follow a bill from start to finish.

GPA 8260 - Alternative Service Delivery

This course is open to advanced master's level students. State and local governments are facing their worst fiscal crises in years. As a result, public officials in Minnesota and across the United States are seeking either more cost effective or alternative ways to deliver public services, including the employment of what President Bush calls "faith-based initiatives." This course examines the theoretical underpinnings, debates, and track record of the various alternatives to delivery public services. Topics include: privatization, vouchers, contracting out, public/private and public/nonprofit partnerships, and the use of market incentives and competition to improve service delivery. We shall also examine several policy areas where alternative means to deliver services have been tried or advocated including criminal justice, education, health care, welfare, energy, and transportation.

GPA 8270 - Managerial Leadership and Cultural Competency

This course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to examine issues of cultural competence in managing and leading organizations in changing times. This course will engage students in a series of dialogues concerning issues of cultural competence in the workplace, their impact on the processes of management, work and the organization. Emphasis will be placed on workplace issues of race and gender and will include discussions of issues of disability, age, social class, sexual identity, religion and ethnicity.

GPA 8360 - Lobbying for Nonprofits

This course provides the historical and theoretical context for nonprofit involvement in advocacy and lobbying; addresses organizational infrastructure needs in building capacity for public policy work; examines legal guidelines for nonprofit lobbying; and provides students with practical experience in working with the legislative process at the state or local level.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8361 - Fundamentals of Philanthropy

This course examines the history, key issues, and emerging trends of philanthropy. Identifies the unique issues and career opportunities in this discrete component of the nonprofit sector. This course is for students interested in the field of philanthropy and practitioners in the field who want to gain an understanding of the history and issues that frame the context for their work.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8362 - Fundraising for Nonprofits

This course examines strategies for diversifying revenues and creating short and long-term development plans. This course helps students develop skills in conducting research, identifying resources for public and private grants, and writing proposals. Covers capital campaigns, earned income opportunities, membership development, individual donors, planned giving campaigns, and other fundraising initiatives.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8440 - Social Demographics

This course will look at some of the details impacting our society and specifically how immigration, aging, and policy converge in our society and ultimately in our policymaking. Any one of the three issues covered in this course could be a separate, semester long course. This course covers basic concepts present in each of the three areas.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8490 - Capstone Skills Development for Government

This course requires students to integrate the diverse materials mastered in the core program, formulate business recommendations, and communicate findings in oral and written form. In a series of structured simulations of contemporary problems commonly encountered by administrators, students receive the opportunity to practice managerial skills and demonstrate the leadership necessary for effective managerial performance.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MPA capstone

GPA 8492 - Capstone Skills Development for Nonprofits

This course provides MANM soon-to-be-graduating students with a rigorous classroom and practicum course that helps them demonstrate the skills and knowledge they have mastered in the program and test their critical thinking and skills abilities to manage and/or lead a nonprofit organization. Students will study and examine the critical or current issues of the nonprofit sector, complete an applied research project with a Twin Cities organization, and present the project including a final paper and presentation to a MANM Nonprofit Board of Review (a panel of nonprofit leaders selected) at the end of each semester.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MANM Capstone

GPA 8494 - Internship

Any student without professional work experience in his or her field of study is required to participate in an internship. This internship is an additional course that will not fulfill an elective requirement. Each student is notified at the time of admission whether an internship is a required component of his or her individual program. If the student is required to complete an internship, he or she must work with his or her advisor in planning the internship.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8495 - Master's Thesis

Research and writing of a major academic or professional paper of approximately 50 to 100 pages in length under the supervision of a student-selected faculty member and committee that integrates knowledge and skills acquired in the program. Individual master's theses must be approved by a faculty committee, and oral defense of the final paper is required. The master's thesis is completed over two semesters. The master's thesis is an option for all MAM, MANM, and MPA students on the Saint Paul campus. Dual degree students may complete a master's thesis on a cross-sector issue.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8497 - Independent Study

Independent study provides an opportunity to work independently under the direction of a faculty member. The student and the instructor work out a course of study before the term begins and typically meet four to six times throughout the term to discuss readings and papers. Students may take one independent study.

Credits: 1-4 credits

GPA 8501 - Historical Foundations and Professional Development

This course examines how public administration and nonprofit management have evolved as fields of study, and how they are designed and practiced. The academic and career development goals of individual students are addressed. Students are prepared to integrate theory into practice at an advanced level.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8502 - Research Methods

Advanced Research Methods introduces students to the basic techniques of quantitative and qualitative research required in the field of public administration. Students learn how to define a research project and select appropriate methodologies to investigate political and social phenomena. Emphasis is also placed on learning how to interpret and critically evaluate public administration research.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8503 - Critical Issues for Public Administrators

This course identifies and explores important contemporary issues facing public administration practitioners, and looks at how these issues relate to major ideas in the history of the field. This course examines leading-edge professional practices related to these issues, and the extent to which these practices have been successful in local, state, and national contexts. Students integrate their learning from the other core courses and prepare for written exams in the program.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8504 - Advanced Organizational Theory and Leadership

This course is an advanced, in-depth examination of the concepts, analytical tools, and personal skills underlying behavior in organizations. It explores the relationship between task accomplishment and human fulfillment in the context of planned organizational change.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8506 - Advanced Seminar in Public Policy

This course examines the theoretical and philosophical approaches used to systematically examine the public policy process. Because no single theory or model can adequately describe the complexities of this process, the analytical frameworks and assumptions of the major approaches to policy analysis are emphasized, and emerging theories explored. In individual assignments, students are encouraged to examine policy issues and frameworks that relate to potential dissertation topics.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8507 - Dissertation I: Advanced Research Methods

This course prepares students to design, develop, complete, and defend an applied dissertation research project. The nature and purpose of dissertation research are explored, and technical issues relevant to research in the field of public administration are examined. By the end of the course, students are expected to develop dissertation prospectuses of sufficient quality to be submitted to their dissertation committees for review and approval.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: Graded on an A-F basis

GPA 8523 - Contemporary Social Policy Issues

This course examines the historical context, theoretical arguments, and political controversies surrounding current and emerging social policy issues. It considers the impacts of changing social policies on vulnerable populations, the delivery of health and human services, and society at large.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8524 - Housing and Economic Development Policy

This course examines economic development theories and housing policies in the United States. Emphasis upon understanding how economic and housing markets operate and how national, state, and local governments can influence business investment and job development decisions and the construction and rehabilitation of housing for different populations. This course first provides an overview on how economic and housing markets function. The discussion will include discussion of basic principles of macro and microeconomics and then analysis of specific views of economic development, including exportbase, core-periphery, and locational theories. The course then provides specific analysis and evaluation of the different policies and techniques governments have used to secure economic and housing goals. Among the techniques examined will be: tax incentives and TIFs, bonding, public subsidies, public/private partnerships, infrastructure development, and direct government investment in, or ownership of housing and economic development entities.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8527 - Alternative Service Delivery

State and local governments are facing their worst fiscal crises in years. As a result, public officials in Minnesota and across the United States are seeking either more cost effective or alternative ways to deliver public services, including the employment of what President Bush calls "faith-based initiatives." This course examines the theoretical underpinnings, debates, and track record of the various alternatives to delivery public services. Topics include: privatization, vouchers, contracting out, public/private and public/nonprofit partnerships, and the use of market incentives and competition to improve service delivery. We shall also examine several policy areas where alternative means to deliver services have been tried or advocated including criminal justice, education, health care, welfare, energy, and transportation.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8534 - Civic Engagement

Fundamental to our democracy is the active involvement of citizens. Today we hear a lot of talk about civic engagement. But what is civic engagement? How do the public and nonprofit sector become models of citizen participation? This course will explore the discontents and the promises, introducing students to a new model of engaged democratic practice which is deeply political in an older sense of politics as engaging different interests and views in solving common problems and creating common things.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8570 - Managerial Leadership and Cultural

Competency

This course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to examine issues of cultural competence in managing and leading organizations in changing times. This course will engage students in a series of dialogues concerning issues of cultural competence in the workplace, their impact on the processes of management, work and the organization. Emphasis will be placed on workplace issues of race and gender and will include discussions of issues of disability, age, social class, sexual identity, religion and ethnicity.

GPA 8600 - Strategic Planning and Decision Making in the Public Sector

The first half of the course is a survey of strategic planning, to include: organization of the planning process; the mission statement; analysis of environmental strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats (SWOT analysis); and identifying strategic issues or goals. The effectiveness of strategic planning in government is also examined. Students will examine strategic plans and work in teams on planning exercises. As strategic planning should lead to decision making in an organization, the second half of the course is on normative and behavioral decision making. Several normative models of decision making are introduced and contrasted with findings from psychological research and behavioral decision theory on how individuals and groups make decisions in practice. Research shows that people often do not think in the best way or make the best decisions to reach their own goals. Topics include utility theory, expert systems, Kohlberg's stages of moral thinking, and the effectiveness of individual versus group decision making. Psychological biases are shown to occur in probability estimation, hypothesis testing, preference reversals, framing effects, and risk avoidance. Doctoral students will lead discussions and write papers on assigned topics.

Credits: 4 credits

GPA 8992 - Dissertation II

The preparation of a successful doctoral dissertation (one approved by the student's doctoral committee), with direction from the student's committee.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: Graded on a Pass/no Credit basis

GPA 8993 - Dissertation III

The preparation of a successful doctoral dissertation (one approved by the student's doctoral committee), with direction from the student's committee.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: Graded on a Pass/no Credit basis

GPA 8994 - Dissertation IV

Independent work completing research based on approved proposal.

Credits: 2 credits

Note: Graded on a Pass/no Credit basis

GPA 8995 - Dissertation V

Independent work with chair/mentor writing up analysis and conclusions. Outcome is finished dissertation that will go to final defense.

Credits: 2 credits

GPA 8997 - Independent Study

Independent study provides an opportunity to work independently under the direction of a faculty member. The student and the instructor work out a course of study before the term begins and typically meet four to six times throughout the term to discuss readings and papers.

Students may take two independent studies.

LGST 6000 - Introduction to Electronic Discovery

Course covers the purpose of electronic discovery and the legal framework that governs its objectives and standards. Students will learn to:

- Define the purpose and overarching objectives of the e-Discovery process from all perspectives.
- Explain the relationship between evidentiary requirements and the e-Discovery process.

Credits: 4 credits

LGST 6010 - Electronic Discovery: A Practical Framework

Course covers the practical framework, including a concurrent technology lab, by which the eDiscovery process meets its objectives. Students will learn to:

- Identify e-Discovery process participants and their roles and responsibilities.
- Articulate with detail the core phases of the e-Discovery process and the types and purpose of key technology types and other resources available to support the process.

Credits: 4 credits

LGST 6020 - Managing Electronic Discovery

Course covers planning and design, budgeting, communications, documentation and process management. Students will learn to:

- Design or support an effective, efficient and defensible e-Discovery process, including planning, documentation, and execution.

Credits: 2 credits

LGST 6030 - Advanced Electronic Discovery: Emerging Issues

Course covers recognizing and addressing risk in eDiscovery, recognizing and addressing opportunity in eDiscovery and emerging issues. Students will learn to:

- Produce well-founded risk and opportunity analyses inherent in an eDiscovery process project.
- Demonstrate and understanding of the key emerging issues regarding eDiscovery.

Credits: 2 credits

LGST 6040 - Advanced Electronic Discovery: Technology Practicum

Course covers in-depth, high-profile, critical technology platforms and services areas that present particular challenges with respect to electronic discovery. Students will learn to:

- Produce well-founded risk and opportunity analyses inherent in an eDiscovery process project.
- Demonstrate and understanding of the key emerging issues regarding eDiscovery.

Credits: 2 credits

LGST 6050 - eDiscovery Practicum

This 150-hour apprenticeship provides hands-on experience and seminars that link experiential and academic experiences, ensuring adequate preparation for entry into the profession. Students will:

- Apply previously learned concepts and principles previously learned in a practical working environment under the supervision of a knowledgeable lawyer or technology specialist.

Prerequisites: LGST 6000, LGST 6010. Concurrent enrollment in LGST 6020, LGST 6030 and LGST 6040.

Credits: 4 credits

MAED 7110 - Number Operations & Base Ten Development

The content focus of this course is on understanding various developmental frameworks of how K-5 students construct their mathematical knowledge on single and multi-digit number operations, including exploring algebraic properties that underlie the mathematics. Developing instructional strategies, discourse practices, and reflective teaching disposition along with documenting student case studies are core elements threaded throughout this course.

Credits: 4 credits

MAED 7120 - Fractions & Decimals - Geometry & Measurement

Credits: 4 credits

MAED 7130 - Assessment & Intervention: Summer School Practicum

Credits: 4 credits

MBA 8010 - Negotiation Theory & Practice

Through both lecture and simulation, this course explores major themes in negotiation theory and practice, including distributive versus integrative bargaining, personality styles, multi-party negotiation, and ethical issues. Students are encouraged to reflect on the theoretical foundations that underlie our actions and on the many considerations that influence effective and ethical negotiation practice.

MBA 8011 - Conflict Management Systems Design

This course will help you improve decisions, increase creativity, enhance others' performances and your capacity to build a healthy, productive workplace. The classroom will be a metaphor for "organization". Students will experience how conflict is managed individually and systemically. The class will discern patterns, roles, concerns, power differentials and differing workplace assumptions. Participants will work in teams within the organization to design customized conflict responses. The course will merge theory and practice, challenging students on best practices, conflict prevention tools, and alternative dispute resolution options.

With a greater in-depth appreciation for workplace culture, systems and people, class team members will gain familiarity with the necessity of assessments, buy-in, design teams, development, implementation, roll-out and feedback loops. Participants will build their capacity to manage conflict more effectively on a systemic basis using principles of organizational systems design.

MBA 8012 - Conflict Theories

This course explores the nature of conflict from a range of theoretical and research-based perspectives including psychology, communication, and group and social dynamics. This course lays a foundation for further study in conflict management and resolution.

MBA 8020 - Corporate Finance

This course presents the theory and practice of corporate finance. Topics include concepts of corporate valuation, financial statement analysis and forecasting; the evaluation of capital investments under differing assumptions about risks and the state of the world; the financing choice for capital projects; the effects of debt, equity and derivative financial instruments on the value of the firm; dividend policy and other stakeholder forms of payment; corporate restructuring, bankruptcy, and merger; issues in corporate control and compensation.

MBA 8021 - Financial Institutions and Markets

This course begins with a discussion of the financial system and financial institutions and the relationship between interest rates and security prices, the money market where interest rates are determined, and the role of the consumer and business and government in the financial markets. The course 1) examines how markets are organized and how trading occurs; and 2) establishes a framework for understanding how existing markets are set up, how trading occurs in them and how these markets evolve over time. The concentration is on securities markets and trading practices, but most of the principles developed are also applicable to other kinds of markets – markets for products, service and information.

MBA 8022 - Finance Theory & Applications

This course covers the major decision-making areas of corporate finance and selected areas of financial history. Focusing on financial analysis and planning, corporate policies, valuation, and risk management. Topics will include firm capital structure and payout policy, short-term and long-term financial planning, options, risk management and derivatives, and corporate restructuring. The course builds upon the topics covered in MBA 8220: Managerial Finance.

MBA 8031 - International Business Transactions

International Business Transactions will take students through the life-cycle of a model business transaction in which an existing product and service offering will be provided for the first time in an international location. For each transaction life-cycle element, emphasis will be placed on considerations unique to the conduct of the transaction across political, geographic and cultural boundaries. Readings in bargaining strategies and international contract structure will be applied through a series of practical classroom exercises and preparation of typical transaction deliverables.

MBA 8040 - HR Strategy

Typically the majority of an organization's costs relate to people, yet few organizations take a strategic approach to HR management. This course provides an in-depth review of the essential elements required to develop a strategic HR role. It also includes the development of a human capital strategic plan for an organization, which facilitates student skill development in this critical area. This course should be of interest to HR professionals, those who are considering the field of HR, and/or those who are interested in the potential to significantly impact organizational profits.

MBA 8051 - Electronic Marketing

This course explores the important concepts of electronic marketing, which will be considered within the framework of the marketing function and its influence on total business function. This course is designed to provide you with an introduction into the world of the digital channel and Internet based marketing communications such as the use of social media marketing (Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and etc.) to influence our customers in decision making. This course will examine electronic marketing issues from a balanced perspective of theory and practice. On the theory side, we will draw on recent developments in research on Internet marketing. On the practical side, real-world cases and practices will be used to systematically supplement the principles and theories introduced.

MBA 8052 - Market Research

Marketing strategy and decision making rely on accurate, useful information developed through marketing research activities. This course introduces you to the fundamentals of marketing research in order to prepare you to conduct basic research on your own or be a more informed consumer of sophisticated and specialized marketing research services. This course has an applied, skill-building focus, underlined with thorough understanding of marketing research principles. You will learn the typical research methods used to generate and analyze primary data in marketing research. You will also be exposed to and use standard sources of secondary data. Finally, you will undertake typical data analysis tasks used in marketing research.

MBA 8053 - International Marketing Management

This course focuses on practical issues of participating in international markets. We discuss foreign direct investment, joint ventures, licensing and distribution agreements. Topics covered include exporting, supply chains, global human resource management, global marketing, and financial management in international business. We also examine entry strategies for doing business in global markets. The course includes both conceptual frameworks and contemporary applications. Students apply the topics covered by working in groups to develop an international marketing plan to enter a foreign market with a specific product or service

Credits: 4 credits

MBA 8097 - International Seminar

Credits: 4 credits

MBA 8101 - Management & Organizational Behavior

Managing people requires a broad range of interdisciplinary knowledge and skills. To be effective, managers must have solid planning and organizational skills. They must also have solid understanding of human behavior, and how human behavioral tendencies affect and are affected by organizational systems, processes, and interactions. This component of Module 1 helps students develop the knowledge and skills needed to effectively manage people in organizations. Topics include fundamentals of social cognition, individual differences, judgment and decision making, motivation, organizational power and politics, managerial communication, human resource management, and conflict management.

MBA 8140 - Critical Thinking

It is a challenging objective to raise student skills in critical and analytical thinking. And this course's purpose is just that. Through exploring today's complex business problems, students will develop a critical thinking attitude while learning how to apply an array of critical thinking skills. Emphasis will be placed on using logical reasoning supported by qualitative and quantitative evidence to identify problems, evaluate alternatives, and justify decisions. It is expected that students will become better listeners, more capable communicators – both in writing and speaking – as well as better at reflecting upon their own thinking.

The class is based on the premise that critical thinking and communication skills are best learned through practice. Therefore, repeated writing and speaking exercises will be core components of the class, and students will receive training and practice as well as instructor and peer feedback to help them improve their skills.

MBA 8160 - Leadership Skills Development

The concepts of management and leadership are often compared. One way to define leadership in a managerial context is that leadership is the extent to which a manager has influence over others above and beyond their position-based power or authority. This component of Module 1 will help students develop two distinct sets of skills that will help them become leaders: self-leadership and team building. Topics will be introduced in regular class settings and then be developed through intensive full-day workshops and follow-up activities.

MBA 8210 - Managerial Accounting

This course will build on financial accounting principles and examine the tools that support management measurement and control of costs and operations. Financial forecasting and budgeting will be introduced for establishing performance targets. Cost volume and differential pricing techniques will be examined as tools for making tactical decisions. Budgeting, job order and activity based costing will be examined as tools for measuring day-to-day operations. Alternative performance measures will be examined for measuring progress towards strategic goals.

MBA 8240 - Managerial Economics

This course examines supply and demand and the effect of elasticity on price, income and total revenue. With this foundation, marginal analysis and opportunity cost concepts will be introduced. The course will then examine how economic principles are impacted by different market structures (perfect competition, monopoly, monopolistic competition and oligopoly). The course will conclude with analysis on how economics impacts strategy and business decision-making.

MBA 8250 - Financial Accounting

This course is an introduction to the external accounting systems used by U.S. organizations to report their financial position to external users such as stockholders, creditors, and potential investors. Students will develop an understanding of the Balance Sheet, Income Statement, and Statement of Cash Flows. By the end of the course, students will be able to read and interpret financial statements.

MBA 8310 - Managerial Finance

Today, managers need to understand the fundamentals of financial management to make good decisions. This course covers the issues in finance that a manager is likely to encounter. It will be taught in two parts. The first portion of the course will discuss the financial statements, cash flows and the time value of money. Once we understand these basics, we will discuss issues surrounding corporate financing including equity and debt. We will discuss capital investment and how a company decides to allocate its resources in a value-maximizing manner. We will also discuss risk and return and how it ultimately affects the company's cost of capital. The second part of the course focuses on applying some of what we learned in the first part of the course. We will also discuss special topics such as mergers and acquisitions and international finance in this part of the course.

MBA 8330 - Managing in the Global Marketplace

Managers need a background in global environment to function in the international marketplace. We will cover globalization, outsourcing, and discussion of some international trade theory. The discussions of the organization of international business and business operations, such as import-export, global production, and logistics issues will help students understand the planning involved in effectively moving and operating a business in the global marketplace. There will be coverage of ethical issues in the international arena. Materials on cross-cultural negotiations, human resource issues and strategies for entering a specific international market will aid the students in determining what entry strategy may be most effective. Students will be asked to consider a company and/or a product which might be used to plan their entry strategy utilizing the components covered in class for success.

MBA 8350 - Marketing Management

Marketing expertise has emerged as a key requisite in determining the success of organizations. This course will prepare students to lead organizations through complex challenges in the local and global marketplace. State-of-the-art marketing practices, theories, case studies, and trends are blended into results-oriented actions that equip students with the skills and knowledge necessary to make sound marketing decisions.

MBA 8420 - Strategic Financial Analysis

Viewing strategy through the lens of financial performance sharpens (or enhances) management (or management capabilities). Whether evaluating alternative strategies, setting strategy-assessing metrics, or judging strategy implementation, financials play a paramount role. Strategic Financial Analysis is designed to provide students with both theory and hands-on analytical practice to analyze and support strategic decisions.

MBA 8450 - Business Law and Regulatory Environment

Business Law and Regulatory Environment provides a clear understanding of the basic principles of business law. Among the topics covered are contracts, sales, intellectual property, business organizations, agency, securities regulation, negotiable instruments, e-commerce and antitrust law. When the students complete the course they should be able to identify and work through common legal problems and ethical issues they will face in the workplace.

MBA 8470 - Managerial IT

Organizations are only as strong as the combined effectiveness of its people, processes, and technology. The people manage and implement the business processes; technology is the key enabler of them. This course will examine how to understand and manage information technology to create and revitalize business processes, improve decision making, and gain competitive advantage. Selected major areas of IT critical to all managers and leaders will be surveyed using case studies as a core learning method.

Credits: 2 credits

MBA 8495 - Strategic Management and Capstone/Field Study I

This competency integrates a broad understanding of business strategy with a practical field study experience. Strategy literature is evaluated to assess applicability of classic frameworks in the 21st century. Business cases are analyzed with a focus on competitive strategy, the economics of information, resource allocation, industry analytics, ethics, and the importance of mission and goals. The Capstone/Field Study competency challenges you to integrate and apply skills developed throughout your Hamline MBA education to issues being faced by an actual business organization by giving you the experience of serving as a consulting team for a designated client organization contemplating significant change or investment. Throughout this competency you will have numerous opportunities for dialogue with industry leaders, allowing you to blend theory and practice in understanding the complicated world of business today.

MBA 8496 - Strategic Management and Capstone/Field Study II

This competency integrates a broad understanding of business strategy with a practical field study experience. Strategy literature is evaluated to assess applicability of classic frameworks in the 21st century. Business cases are analyzed with a focus on competitive strategy, the economics of information, resource allocation, industry analytics, ethics, and the importance of mission and goals. The Capstone/Field Study competency challenges you to integrate and apply skills developed throughout your Hamline MBA education to issues being faced by an actual business organization by giving you the experience of serving as a consulting team for a designated client organization contemplating significant change or investment. Credits: 4 credits

NSEE 8000 - Environment and Society

Participate in a community investigation of natural and social environmental issues. Explore the concept of environmental literacy, build a solid understanding of the basics of environmental education, and be actively involved in a series of community investigations in human-built and natural locations around Minnesota's Twin Cities. Learn to focus through three "lenses": systems (knowledge of social and natural systems and their interaction); problem identification and solving (ethics typically are an issue in these situations); and move to action (defined as citizenship and stewardship). Examine and reflect on your environmental philosophies and behaviors.

Credits: 3 credits

NSEE 8010 - History of the Environment

From Izaak Walton to Rachel Carson, the history of the environment is filled with dedicated role models. Environmental education is the outgrowth of dedication, perseverance, literature, painting and politics, but the history of environmental ethics, movements and education is not well understood. Meet people like Leopold, Olson, Comstock, Peterson, and Carson; look at the power of the individual, the organization of groups, and emerging and changing ethics. Course includes some humor and some drama.

NSEE 8011 - History and Nature of Science

Fundamental to effective science teaching is a deep understanding of how science works, its challenges through history, and its impact on those we call "scientists." Explore science through cultural and historical perspectives; share examples of scientists, scientific advancements, and their impacts on society; and design plans for making the history and nature of science standards more inclusive in your curriculum.

NSEE 8110 - Foundations of Environmental Education

You will read, discuss, and write about contemporary issues in teaching, learning, and assessment as they apply to education about the environment. You will demonstrate your reflection skills through dialogue, writing, and examination of your personal beliefs about teaching and learning. You will explore how knowledge is constructed individually and socially. In this course, you will study teaching and learning concepts, but also challenge them. In a supportive community of learners, we will think critically about how theories apply to practice, and explore different approaches to helping people make environmentally literate decisions.
Credits: 4 credits

NSEE 8111 - Science Teaching and Learning

Science classrooms are exciting environments. The combination of hands-on exploration, laboratory activities, vocabulary and research makes science teaching complex and challenging. This is a practitioner's course where science-specific instructional strategies will be actively investigated, including the classroom environment, impact of state and national standards, inquiry as process and pedagogy, effective questioning, misconceptions and gaps in understanding, use of science notebooks/journals, curriculum design, assessment models, state science testing, science literacy, and cultural perspective.

NSEE 8200 - Ecological Systems: Biomes

The concept of systems is essential to understanding ecological principles; nothing demonstrates this better than the biomes of Minnesota. Each of Minnesota's biomes (prairie, deciduous forest, boreal forest) is an interplay of large geologic, biologic, cultural, and meteorological systems. Within each broad system is a subset of systems recognized as plant communities. Experience hands-on, wet-foot camping; sampling, identifying, and observing; travel and reflection, story-sharing; and science knowledge. Discover applications for your own classroom.

NSEE 8300 - Social Systems: Environmental Footprints

It's not just how many footprints mark our presence on Earth. It's how big those footprints are. At the heart of the ecological footprint are questions about equity, justice, and sustainability. The typical American consumes between four and eight times more resources than people of other cultures. Create a personal environmental impact statement while investigating the math, science, and social implications of how we live.
Credits: 2 credits

NSEE 8485 - Research Methods Practicum

Research as an inquiry strategy is the central theme of this course. Critical steps in the research process, along with related methodological issues, are examined. These include an understanding of a variety of research methodologies, statement and clarification of research problems, and basic statistical methods of describing data
Credits: 4 credits

NSEE 8495 - Capstone

The capstone project is the culmination of an MAEd: NSEE student's work at Hamline University. It is generally an applied research project conducted in the student's school or workplace. The student works closely with an administrative advisor to construct the research question, carry out the research, and complete the project. The capstone committee offers additional support throughout the process. This project requires a written component and an oral presentation. Advisor/committee approvals are required at proposal stage before registration occurs. The capstone course is only available to those master's students who are nearing completion of their NSEE degree program. Prerequisite: Successful completion of NSEE 8486.
Credits: 4 credits
Note: For further information about the capstone committee and process, please contact Dr. Renee Wonser (651-523-2419 or rwonser@hamline.edu).

SPED 7100 - ASD: Introduction and Overview

The incidence of autism spectrum disorders has increased significantly, and schools are charged with creating appropriate programs.

Examine autism and Asperger Syndrome, educational criteria, identification and assessment, personal perspectives, teaching strategies, and family issues. Discuss specific research related to autism and educational practices. Address the effects of autism on families, as well as how to include the family in educational planning. Target audience: educators, administrators, autism resource specialists, special educators P-12, and related services personnel.

Credits: 2 credits

Note: This course is required for completion of the Autism Spectrum Disorders certificate.

SPED 7101 - Proactive Behavior Management

Too often, students with autism are 'treated' with behavior management strategies that expect the student to have necessary skills in the areas of emotional regulation, perspective-taking, and executive functioning. The emergence of scientific information regarding behavior and brain function should compel us to rethink many of our preconceived ideas about challenging behaviors and the strategies we use for intervention. In addition, research regarding emotional regulation development and sensory systems deficits, offers us an increased understanding of why our students struggle in specific situations.

This class examines behavior management philosophy, sensory and emotional regulation research, tools for Functional Behavior Assessments, and strategies for writing Positive Behavior Support Plans for students on the autism spectrum.

Prerequisite: SPED 7091 or SPED 7100

Credits: 2 credits

Note: This course is required for the completion of the Autism Spectrum Disorders certification and may also be taken as an elective for the Other Health Disabilities Certificate.

SPED 7102 - Assessment: Identification and Planning for the Student with ASD

Become competent in the identification and assessment of individuals with autism spectrum disorders.

Review Minnesota state criteria for the process of identification, assessment and educational planning for students with autism spectrum disorders. Effectively select, utilize, and report results using appropriate tools for evaluation of autism spectrum disorders. Write your own comprehensive evaluation report based on results obtained from testing an individual to which you have access.

Online login and course information at www.hamline.edu/education/online. Target audience: educators, administrators, autism resource specialists, special educators P-12, and related services personnel.

Prerequisite: SPED 7091

Credits: 2 credits

Note: This course is required for completion of the Autism Spectrum Disorders certificate.

SPED 7103 - Communication, Assessment, and Intervention for Learners with ASD

This course is required for students pursuing the ASD license (meets required competencies). It is one of two choices for an assessment class in the ASD certificate program, providing educators with an overview of the communication characteristics of individuals with ASD and exploring current assessment tools and strategies related to communication. The following areas will be addressed: development of social communication and its relevance in ASD, communicative characteristics across the autism spectrum, formal and informal assessment tools and strategies currently used to evaluate communication, including the use of informal tests to evaluate communicative functions, social communication, non-verbal language and play skills, use of assessment results to identify needs and develop intervention plans, and principles of guiding language intervention in ASD.

SPED 7104 - Intervention and Strategies for Students with ASD

This course examines how to organize and structure learning environments and integrate various evidence based strategies/interventions to support learners on the autism spectrum. This is a required course for both the ASD license and ASD certificate and is intended to be completed near the end of your ASD licensure/certificate.

SPED 7105 - Collaborative Transition Programming to Support Individuals with ASD Across Ages

The intent of this course is to develop an understanding of the impact an autism spectrum disorder has throughout an individuals' educational, employment, and independent living environments. Emphasis will be on the characteristics, issues, and essential elements for effective transition involved in the education and support of adolescents and young adults across the spectrum.

Participants will learn effective strategies based on current research they can use to teach individuals with ASD how to manage, cope, contribute, and succeed in educational, home, employment, and community environments. Collaboration among multidisciplinary team members involved in the assessment of academic, functional, social communication, employment, and independent living abilities will be a major focus of this course. A variety of educational approaches will be explored. Participants will integrate, apply, and evaluate strategies learned and have the opportunity to share and reflect on the results with their classmates.

The overall goal of this course is to teach educators and other team members how to prepare self-determined individuals able to advocate their wishes, goals, needs, and accommodations. Curricular options will be carefully considered to provide opportunities related to an individual's interests, strengths, instructional level, self-understanding, self-regulation, and self-determination.

Credits: 2 credits

Note: This is a requirement for the ASD license and an elective course for the ASD certificate. It is intended to be completed near the end of the ASD license/certificate.

SPED 7106 - Social Cognition

Recognizing differences in learning and perception is essential to teaching individuals on the autism spectrum. Individuals with ASD have unique social cognitive processing styles and needs that impact their participation in school and the community. In addition, they face unique challenges with executive functions such as organization, planning/prioritizing, and social self-monitoring. In this course, participants will gain advanced knowledge of social cognitive and executive function differences for individuals with ASD, learn about formal and informal assessment tools, and learn how to design and implement instructional programs that promote social participation and interpersonal interactions. The strategies explored in the course specifically target promoting skills in: social understanding, self-monitoring/self-advocacy, problem solving, cognitive flexibility, and effective organization, planning, and time management skills.

Course assignments and resources access information from a variety of sources such as peer reviewed journal publications, text selections, web-based resources, direct student-application opportunities, and small group interaction to engage in relevant professional development and reflection, to increase knowledge and skill as a special educator, and inform your instructional practices with students and families.

Credits: 2 credits

Note: This course is a required course for the ASD licensure and an elective course for those seeking the ASD certificate.

WRIT 8000 - MFA Core

The MFA journey begins with a core seminar course, "Writers and Readers, Creators Both." The course is a reading-intensive examination of the relationship between reading and writing. Students expand their knowledge of the craft of writing and the use of literary texts as guides for their own work.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: required of MFA students

WRIT 8010 - Composition Theory and Pedagogy

This course introduces students to the theory and practice of teaching writing at the college level. Students will examine a range of composition philosophies and pedagogies, including expressive, rhetorical, collaborative, cultural, and critical approaches. Through extensive reading and peer-reviewed demonstrations, students will learn and practice a process-based approach to teaching critical thinking, reading, and writing skills in the writing classroom. Students will learn strategies for designing courses and assignments, facilitating discussions and peer reviews, integrating technology and research methods, and responding to writing through tutorials and written evaluations. Readings and presentations by practitioners will also introduce students to the philosophies and practices of Writing Across the Curriculum, the Writing Center, and second-language and basic writing instruction.

Prerequisites: Open to graduate students who have completed 8 or more credits

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MFA Elective

WRIT 8013 - Apocalypses

"After us, the flood." -- Madame de Pompadour

In the years since this course was first taught, fascination with the end of our world has exploded: we've heard about being Left Behind, zombies, pandemic, the Singularity, global climate change, the Yellowstone Caldera (aimed right at MN!), civilizational collapse, hostile machine intelligences, runaway robots, biological weapons, Earth changes, alien invasion, transhumanity, nuclear war, Peak Oil, space impact, and on and on. Apocalyptic scenarios play out in films, theater, and children's books. Are you ready for it all to end?

Maybe not. But some folks are ready, or at least they're getting ready, and they are telling stories, spreading the word, imagining the end -- and what comes after. They call us to action: Recycle! Pray! Revolt! The end of all-of-it is a place to enact all of the competing claims of what it finally means to be human. Apocalypses tell us what our lives here-and-now mean in some greater scheme. In this class, we study contemporary versions of apocalypse, and the pleasures and comforts they provide. We will explore both literal and metaphoric catastrophe in texts from believers, theorists, and writers. We will read fictional and non-fictional apocalypses, browse a host of websites, watch some films, and explore catastrophic science, alarmist science writers, and anything else students might choose to bring to the table. The work of the course will be assembling these materials, looking critically at them, deciding what it all means, and imagining our own apocalypses.

WRIT 8063 - The Creative Process

"There are three rules for writing the novel. Unfortunately, no one knows what they are." --- W. Somerset Maugham

After all the courses, the critiques, and The Capstone, Hamline's MALS and MFA graduates move into their spheres of influence to participate as creators. A working relationship with the creative process is a vital part of that transition, as well as a foundation for the work students do as creators within their graduate program. This course is structured as an investigation and an experiment. Each student will identify the elements of "right practice" for a productive individual approach to generating, developing, and bringing new ideas to fruition. We'll study the testimonies of writers, artists, musicians, mathematicians, scientists, psychologists, philosophers and other creative minds for patterns and collective wisdom. We'll consider theories and models for the workings of the creative process across disciplines. Most importantly, each student will observe their own creative process through a series of exercises and experiments. Course requirements include an attitude of curiosity and a willingness to experiment, substantial reading and discussion, completion of a detailed process journal, and a critical essay which both makes a creative contribution to the conversation and reflects the theories, models, and experiments undertaken during the semester

Note: MFA elective

WRIT 8110 - Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Poetry

In this course, students study important elements of poetry: metaphor, simile, voice, forms and structures for poems, free verse structures, and the image.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MFA writing/elective

WRIT 8120 - Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Creative Nonfiction

This foundation class explores the fundamental craft skills and broad structural subgenres of creative nonfiction.

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MFA writing/elective

WRIT 8130 - Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Fiction

The focus is on the fundamentals of writing fiction: character development, scene, plot, narrative voice, structure, setting, and dialogue.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8205 - Regional Literature

Topics vary by regional offering.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8210 - Currents in Poetry: Riding the Waves as Editor and Writer (Water-Stone: Poetry)

What urgency moves a poem out of the pile and onto the page for publication? Contemporary poetry boasts multiple aesthetics and thousands of poems making the rounds of literary magazines. How do editors choose what to publish? How do writers navigate the currents of contemporary poetry, making a place in it yet remaining open to diverse influences and in turn influencing it? As members of the Water-Stone Review poetry editorial board, you will work from the perspectives of editor and writer to engage with the 'thrill of the big littles.' The 'big little' magazine or literary journal traditionally has determined the parameters of American poetry, both establishing standards and featuring edgy new arrivals; that process, one editor suggests, "keeps writers writing and their work flowing . . ." How will thinking—and seeing—as an editor influence your work? You will read, discuss, and select poetry submissions to Water-Stone Review, explore other literary journals, study essays on poetic craft, complete short writing exercises, and prepare poems for submission to journals of your choice. Students will revise and workshop at least one selection of their own work in this course as they prepare their journal submissions.

Prerequisite: WRIT 8110 or permission of the instructor

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8220 - Creative Nonfiction Today: Navigating the Craft as Editor and Writer (Water-Stone: Creative Nonfiction)

Why is one creative nonfiction magazine submission forgettable, another indelible? What's right, and wrong, with nonfiction journal submissions? What gives your essays and memoirs the za-za-zoom that leads editors to love your work, pass on the others? What's the difference between workshop critique and editorial interrogation? How does contemporary editorial taste intersect with agreed-upon elements of literary quality, and which editors prefer which sorts of nonfiction form? Where does nonfiction live in the indie magazine scene now, and where might your work fit? Through lively and immersive work on the CNF editorial board of the Water-Stone Review, you will analyze and select from manuscripts submitted to the journal, study journals publishing nonfiction today as well as craft essays illuminating the contemporary conversation about the genre, and prepare your own CNF for submission to magazines of your choice. Students will revise and workshop at least one selection of their own work in this course as they prepare their journal submissions.

Prerequisite: WRIT 8120 or permission of the instructor

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MFA writing/elective

WRIT 8230 - The Successful Story: Fiction Through the Lens of Editor and Writer (Water-Stone: Fiction)

What moves a story beyond first cut? What does it take for a story to beat out hundreds of others on the path to publication? What's the quality of fiction being submitted to national literary journals? Where does our own work fit into the wide range of publishing possibilities? How does editorial work change your fiction forever? In this dynamic, hands-on class, students will take on the role of fiction editorial board for the next issue of Water-Stone Review. Working as a team of editors and writers, we will ask the same questions of our own work that we ask of others: What does it take to succeed? Is quality simply a matter of taste? Is publication purely subjective? Class work will include submission screening, short writing exercises, and the study of national literary journals with an eye toward future placement of our own fiction. Students will revise and workshop at least one selection of their own work in this course as they prepare their journal submissions.

Prerequisite: WRIT 8130 or permission of the instructor

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MFA writing/elective

WRIT 8310 - Advanced Poetry

In this course we work toward the dual goals of preparing students to successfully complete a poetry thesis and become a poet in the world. The course is set up to let students engage with course materials and their writing as working artists. Students will work on full-length poetry manuscripts as we deeply immerse ourselves in the ongoing conversation of poets across time and place, through the study of both poetry and poets' thoughts on craft, influence, and process, as presented through craft essays and interviews.

Prerequisite: WRIT 8110

Credits: 4 credits

Note: MFA writing/elective

WRIT 8320 - Advanced Creative Nonfiction

This class is a sequel to Groundings in the Craft: Elements of Creative Nonfiction. Its purpose is to build upon fundamental craft knowledge already practiced by the student, and to pursue rigorously and adventurously the development of finished works that reflect a writer's vision and knowledge.

Prerequisite: WRIT 8120

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8330 - Advanced Fiction

This is an advanced level, thesis preparation class designed for students who have had substantial coursework and who are ready to begin the serious work of shaping a book-length fiction thesis.

Prerequisite: WRIT 8130

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8350 - Groundings: Plot

In Groundings in the Craft, Literature, and Business of Writing for Children and Young Adults, students study the fundamentals of the craft as well as the history of the picture book, the novel (middle-grade and young adult), and nonfiction with emphasis on the particular element that forms the focus for that residency—i.e., plot, character, setting, point of view, or theme. Students attend and write reflections in response to daily lectures and presentations, read and discuss common books selected by the faculty, and participate in daily two-hour workshop sessions led by faculty advisors. In addition, they explore the processes of submitting their work for publication to an agent or editor, working with an editor, promoting their creative work, living life and making a living as a writer. Third semester students give a lecture based on the material in their critical thesis; fourth semester students give a public reading from their creative thesis.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8351 - Creative & Critical Writing: Level 1

In this semester-long intensive seminar, students are introduced to the craft and process of writing for children and/or young adults. They can choose to focus on the picture book, the novel (middle-grade or young adult), poetry, nonfiction, or a combination. Each month students do the following: (1) they complete assigned reading, annotated bibliographies, short reflective essays, and writing exercises that explore issues of craft; (2) they do extensive creative writing and revision in response to detailed feedback from faculty advisors; (3) and they write and revise short critical essays based on issues of craft or topics of interest that arose from their own creative work or from assigned reading.

Credits: 8 credits

WRIT 8352 - Groundings: Character

In Groundings in the Craft, Literature, and Business of Writing for Children and Young Adults, students study the fundamentals of the craft as well as the history of the picture book, the novel (middle-grade and young adult), and nonfiction with emphasis on the particular element that forms the focus for that residency—i.e., plot, character, setting, point of view, or theme. Students attend and write reflections in response to daily lectures and presentations, read and discuss common books selected by the faculty, and participate in daily two-hour workshop sessions led by faculty advisors. In addition, they explore the processes of submitting their work for publication to an agent or editor, working with an editor, promoting their creative work, living life and making a living as a writer. Third semester students give a lecture based on the material in their critical thesis; fourth semester students give a public reading from their creative thesis.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8353 - Creative & Critical Writing: Level 2

In this semester-long intensive seminar, students are introduced to the craft and process of writing for children and/or young adults. They can choose to focus on the picture book, the novel (middle-grade or young adult), poetry, nonfiction, or a combination. Each month students do the following: (1) they complete assigned reading, annotated bibliographies, short reflective essays, and writing exercises that explore issues of craft; (2) they do extensive creative writing and revision in response to detailed feedback from faculty advisors; (3) and they write and revise short critical essays based on issues of craft or topics of interest that arose from their own creative work or from assigned reading.

Credits: 8 credits

WRIT 8354 - Groundings: Point of View

In Groundings in the Craft, Literature, and Business of Writing for Children and Young Adults, students study the fundamentals of the craft as well as the history of the picture book, the novel (middle-grade and young adult), and nonfiction with emphasis on the particular element that forms the focus for that residency—i.e., plot, character, setting, point of view, or theme. Students attend and write reflections in response to daily lectures and presentations, read and discuss common books selected by the faculty, and participate in daily two-hour workshop sessions led by faculty advisors. In addition, they explore the processes of submitting their work for publication to an agent or editor, working with an editor, promoting their creative work, living life and making a living as a writer. Third semester students give a lecture based on the material in their critical thesis; fourth semester students give a public reading from their creative thesis.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8355 - Creative & Critical Writing: Level 3, Critical Thesis

In this semester-long intensive seminar, students research and develop a topic relevant to their creative work into a thirty-page critical essay. They continue to explore the craft and process of writing as they work on the continuation of creative projects or experiment with new work. They also develop a lecture based on their critical thesis to be given during the ensuing residency.

Credits: 8 credits

WRIT 8356 - Groundings: Setting

In Groundings in the Craft, Literature, and Business of Writing for Children and Young Adults, students study the fundamentals of the craft as well as the history of the picture book, the novel (middle-grade and young adult), and nonfiction with emphasis on the particular element that forms the focus for that residency—i.e., plot, character, setting, point of view, or theme. Students attend and write reflections in response to daily lectures and presentations, read and discuss common books selected by the faculty, and participate in daily two-hour workshop sessions led by faculty advisors. In addition, they explore the processes of submitting their work for publication to an agent or editor, working with an editor, promoting their creative work, living life and making a living as a writer. Third semester students give a lecture based on the material in their critical thesis; fourth semester students give a public reading from their creative thesis.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8357 - Creative & Critical Writing: Level 4, Creative Thesis

In this semester-long intensive seminar, students complete a book-length creative project or a series of picture books that illustrates mastery of the craft in their chosen genre(s) and demonstrates their ability to establish an independent artistic process. They also prepare a public reading based on their creative thesis to be given during their final residency.

Credits: 8 credits

WRIT 8358 - Groundings: Theme/Vision

In Groundings in the Craft, Literature, and Business of Writing for Children and Young Adults, students study the fundamentals of the craft as well as the history of the picture book, the novel (middle-grade and young adult), and nonfiction with emphasis on the particular element that forms the focus for that residency—i.e., plot, character, setting, point of view, or theme. Students attend and write reflections in response to daily lectures and presentations, read and discuss common books selected by the faculty, and participate in daily two-hour workshop sessions led by faculty advisors. Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8400 - Form and Vision in Poetry

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8401 - The Novel

This is an advanced level fiction course for students who want to explore the novel form and generate work for their own novels. It is understood that the novel is a long, circuitous journey. Within the structure of this class, students will generate early material as well as develop an individual relationship with their work. Emphasis will be on the novel's possibility and potential as students develop their fictional dream. Early work will not be critiqued but will be shared informally with peers as time allows. As part of our exploration, we will read novels with a range of narrative strategies. Readings on craft will also be included. Students should expect to write at least ten new pages per week, participate in class exercises and discussion, write brief responses to assigned readings, and complete a final project.

Prerequisite: WRIT 8130

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8402 - Lyric Essay

While the term "lyric essay" has become recently fashionable, the emergence of essays and prose poems that explore subject matter through imaginative intensity and focused compression—including great freedom of movement and of transition—goes back to the nineteenth century. This class will give students the opportunity to study models of the form from authors such as Charles Lamb, Charles Baudelaire, Max Jacob, Virginia Woolf, Mary Ruefle, Akutagawa Ryunosuke, and others. One critical essay on the lyric essay form will be required of each student, along with two creative manuscript submissions.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8491 - Thesis I

MFA: Capstone, Part One

The MFA Capstone is a two-part process, Thesis I and Thesis II respectively. Each is one semester long. If necessary, Thesis I or Thesis II can be extended to two semesters. Thesis I requires a completed draft of the envisioned work. Students then register for Thesis II, in which they refine the draft into a book-length work of acceptable literary quality that shows mastery of the craft. Students are required to write a critical preface in which they discuss their process in writing the thesis and explore the subjects and themes contained therein.

Special registration required for both semesters of Thesis.

Please contact your advisor or the program office.

Credits: 4 credits

WRIT 8492 - Thesis II

MFA: Capstone, Part Two

The MFA Capstone is a two-part process, Thesis I and Thesis II respectively. Each is one semester long. If necessary, Thesis I or Thesis II can be extended to two semesters. Thesis I requires a completed draft of the envisioned work. Students then register for Thesis II, in which they refine the draft into a book-length work of acceptable literary quality that shows mastery of the craft. Students are required to write a critical preface in which they discuss their process in writing the thesis and explore the subjects and themes contained therein.

Special registration required for both semesters of Thesis.
